Authority and Responsibilities

General

The Audit Committee shall discharge its responsibilities, and shall assess the information provided by the Company's management, and by the registered public accounting firm or firms engaged by the Audit Committee as the Company's independent outside auditors (the "Auditors"), in accordance with its business judgment. Management is responsible for the preparation, presentation, and integrity of the Company's financial statements and for the appropriateness of the accounting principles and reporting policies that are used by the Company. The Auditors are responsible for auditing the Company's financial statements and for reviewing the Company's unaudited interim financial statements. The authority and responsibilities set forth in this Charter do not reflect or create any duty or obligation of the Audit Committee to plan or conduct any audit, to determine or certify that the Company's financial statements are complete, accurate, fairly presented, or in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or applicable law, or to guarantee the Auditors' report.

In connection with this responsibility, the Audit Committee shall obtain and review a formal written statement from the Auditors describing all relationships between the Auditors and the Company, including the disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1. The Audit Committee shall actively engage in dialogue with the Auditors concerning any disclosed relationships or services that might impact the objectivity and independence of the Auditors.

Preapproval of Services. The Audit Committee shall preapprove all audit services to be provided to the Company, whether provided by the Auditors or other firms, and all other services (review, attest and non-audit) to be provided to the Company by the Auditors; provided, however, that de minimis non-audit services may instead be approved in accordance with applicable Securities and Exchange Commission rules.

Oversight. The Auditors shall report directly to the Audit Committee, and the Audit Committee shall have sole and direct responsibility for overseeing the work of the Auditors, including resolution of disagreements between Company management and Auditors regarding financial reporting. In connection with its oversight role, the Audit Committee shall, from time to time as appropriate, receive and consider the reports required to be made by the Auditors regarding:

- critical accounting policies and practices;

- alternative treatments within generally accepted accounting principles for policies and practices related to material items that have been discussed with Company management, including ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosures and treatments, and the treatment preferred by the Auditors; and
- other material written communications between the Auditors and Company management.
