

IKKUMA RESOURCES CORP.

WHISTLE BLOWING POLICY

Regulatory authorities in the United States and Canada have adopted investor confidence rules aimed at avoiding accounting scandals that shook the integrity of financial markets at the beginning of the new millennium. In such regard, all public companies must establish a “whistle blowing” policy that allows an interested party such as an employee to alert persons in authority of any improper accounting or financial practices, without fear of retribution. Since the integrity of Ikkuma Resources Corp. (“Ikkuma” or the “Corporation”) as a public company can be negatively affected by improper accounting or financial practices the board of directors of Ikkuma wishes to establish a formal whistle blowing policy. This policy sets out the guidelines to be followed by any interested party who wishes to denounce any impropriety of an accounting or financial nature observed in the course of the exercise of their duties, without fear of loss of employment, prejudice or other form of undesirable reprimand.

1. Purpose of Policy

The Corporation has established accounting policies and procedures and an internal control process to ensure the accuracy and integrity of the Corporation’s financial statements. It is recognized that there may be situations from time to time where employees or other parties believe that these policies and procedures have not been followed or that information has been intentionally or unintentionally misstated or omitted which may impair the integrity or accuracy of the Corporation’s financial statements.

This policy sets out procedures to address the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Corporation in respect of matters relating to accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing. This policy also sets up means to protect the confidentiality and anonymity of any submission by employees or consultants of the Corporation.

In the case of questions relating to accounting, accounting procedures or control procedures, questions or comments may be directed to the Chairman of the Audit Committee at the following address:
