On September 15, 2013, pursuant to the terms of the Convertible Preferred Stock, a 7% cash distribution was made to all Convertible Preferred shareholders of record.

The 7% cash distribution described on Line 14 above, should be considered a non-dividend distribution to the Convertible Preferred shareholders due to the Company's negative current and accumulated earnings & profits. Accordingly, the amount distributed is generally anticipated to represent a return of shareholder basis, to the extent thereof. Once all shareholder basis has been returned, any distribution in excess of shareholder basis should be considered as a gain on the sale of the security pursuant to Internal Revenue Code Section 301(c)(2) & 301(c)(3) and the regulations thereunder. As such, shareholders should consult their tax advisors to determine the tax implications of the non-dividend distribution on their basis in the Company's Convertible Preferred security.

The 7% cash distribution described on Line 14 above, is not from the Company's current or accumulated earnings and profits pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations. As such, the distribution should be considered a non-dividend distribution to the Convertible Preferred shareholders.
