

MGM's Social Responsibility Efforts Recognized by PATA

In July, MGM proudly won the PATA Gold Award in CSR category and two accolades at the 7th Cross-Strait-Four-Region Outstanding Corporate Social Responsibility Award organized by the Mirror Post of Hong Kong, demonstrating the Company's leadership and excellence in social responsibility initiatives. Together with these three accolades, MGM garnered five regional Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) awards so far this year.

On July 18, MGM was honored to win the PATA Gold Award in the CSR category with its "Making Great Moment to the Community" program, acknowledging for its on-going commitment to the local community, its employees and shareholders, as well as the environment. Organized by Pacific Asia Travel Association (PATA) and supported by the Macao Government Tourism Office since 1995, the PATA Gold Award has attracted 200 entries from 87 organizations and individuals worldwide this year.

On the same day, MGM was awarded with the "Outstanding Corporate Social Responsibility Award" and the "Ambassadors of Corporate Social Responsibility" by the Mirror Post of Hong Kong at the 7th Cross-Strait-Four-Region Outstanding Corporate Social Responsibility Award. It marks the second time that the Company has received the Award.

Mr. Grant Bowie, Chief Executive Officer and Executive Director of MGM China Holdings Limited, said, "The PATA Gold Award recognized that our efforts and commitment to CSR have been widely endorsed by prominent travel professionals worldwide who believe that we are working towards a more responsible travel and tourism industry in the Asia Pacific region. All these accolades highlight our commitment to the community of Macau, our team members and the environment. While we are actively supporting Macau into a World Center of Tourism and Leisure, we will continue to be inspired by these awards and strive to contribute to Macau's better tomorrow today."
