

Hip-Hop Dance Crew Jabbawockeez Hosts Workshop at MGM COTAI

Once-in-a-lifetime Opportunity for Local Dance Enthusiasts to Learn from the Best

The highly acclaimed hip-hop dance crew Jabbawockeez, who is now having their first residency show in Macau, recently conducted a workshop for local dance enthusiasts. The workshop stood as a platform for the community to connect with the internationally-known dancers, broadening their horizons and offering them an opportunity to learn from the best of the best.

The JABBAWOCKEEZ: true to yourself at MGM COTAI has been a big hit in Macau! This special dance workshop, taught by Jabbawockeez original members Kevin “KB” Brewer and Rynan Paguio, attracted over 80 enthusiasts from the city’s various dance associations, aged 6 years old and above. The participants were thrilled to have the rare opportunity to freestyle and hit the floor with the famed dance crew as they broke down the moves into a step-by-step. After the workshop, the crew also shared their inspirational stories and tips with the young dancers, as a way to motivate and encourage youth to pursue their dream.

One of the crew members Jeffrey “Phi” Nguyen said, “We’re just spreading love through music and dance, and vibing with the community of Macau and the youth. The youth are really important to us because we were those kids at one point, and now that we’re in a position to share our knowledge and wisdom with the youth. It’s a real blessing.”

One of the participants Yelo said after the workshop, “I have been practicing hip-hop for five years and participated in many local dance workshops. This is the very first time that is hosted by a hotel operator in which we can have such world-renowned dance crew to interact with the Macau community. This is a rare opportunity that I can learn from Jabbawockeez.”

“I am pleasantly surprised as the ability of the local dance community is beyond my expectation. I tried to do something that is of a medium level, not too easy and not too difficult to see what the people are at and they all got it.” said Kevin “KB” Brewer.
