Forward-looking Statement

- This presentation contains statements concerning the company's future results and performance that are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Some of these forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "expects," "may," "will," "believes," "should," "approximately," "anticipates," "estimates," and "plans," and the negative or other variations of those terms or comparable terminology or by discussions of strategy, plans or intentions. In particular, some of these forward-looking statements deal with expectations regarding the company's markets in the first quarter 2006; expected earnings and performance of the company's business segments during the first quarter 2006, demand and pricing for the company's products in the first quarter 2006, higher raw material, energy, chemical, transportation and manufacturing costs in the first quarter 2006, seasonal slowdowns in single-family home closings in the first quarter of 2006, expected pension expense in 2006, expected tax rate in 2006 and related matters. The accuracy of such statements is subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions that may cause actual results to differ materially from those projected, including, but not limited to:
 - The effect of general economic conditions, including the level of interest rates and housing starts;
 - Market demand for the company's products, which may be tied to the relative strength of various U.S. business segments;
 - Energy prices;
 - Raw material prices;
 - Chemical prices;
 - Performance of the company's manufacturing operations;
 - The successful execution of internal performance plans;
 - The level of competition from domestic and foreign producers;
 - The effect of forestry, land use, environmental and other governmental regulations, and changes in accounting regulations;
 - The effect of weather;
 - The risk of loss from fires, floods and other natural disasters;
 - Transportation costs;
 - Legal proceedings; and
 - Performance of pension fund investments and related derivatives.
- The company is also a large exporter and is affected by changes in economic activity in Europe and Asia, particularly Japan, and by changes in currency exchange rates, particularly the relative value of the U.S. dollar to the Euro and the Canadian dollar, and restrictions on international trade or tariffs imposed on imports, including the countervailing and anti-dumping duties imposed on the company's softwood lumber shipments from Canada to the United States. These and other factors could cause or contribute to actual results differing materially from such forward-looking statements and, accordingly, no assurances can be given that any of the events anticipated by the forward-looking statements will occur, or if any of them occurs, what effect they will have on the company's results of operations or financial condition. The company expressly declines any obligation to publicly revise any forward-looking statements that have been made to reflect the occurrence of events after the date of this presentation.
