

AMENDED AND RESTATED CHARTER OF
THE LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT AND COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF AMYRIS, INC.

As adopted on June 21, 2010
Amended and Restated on February 18, 2011, March 14, 2013,
March 22, 2018, November 8, 2018 and February 26, 2020

I. PURPOSE

The Leadership Development and Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Amyris, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), through delegation from the Board, has principal responsibility to evaluate, recommend, approve and/or review executive officer and director compensation arrangements, plans, policies and programs maintained by the Company, and to administer the Company’s cash-based and equity-based compensation plans. The Committee may also make recommendations to the Board regarding its remaining responsibilities relating to executive compensation.

This charter (this “Charter”) sets forth the authority and responsibility of the Committee for evaluating, recommending and/or approving such executive officer and director compensation arrangements, plans, policies and programs maintained by the Company, and for administering the Company’s cash-based and equity-based compensation plans and arrangements for employees, whether adopted prior to or after the date of adoption of this Charter (including issuance of stock options and other equity-based awards granted other than pursuant to an equity compensation plan).

II. MEMBERSHIP

The Committee will consist of two or more members of the Board, with the exact number determined from time to time by the Board. Each member of the Committee will:

- be an “independent director” as defined under the applicable rules, regulations and listing requirements of the principal stock exchange where the Company’s common stock is listed for trading (the “Exchange Rules”), except as may otherwise be permitted by such Exchange Rules;
- be a “non-employee director,” as defined in Rule 16b-3 under Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”);
- be free from any relationship that, in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a Committee member; and
- meet any other requirements imposed by applicable law, regulations or rules, subject to any applicable exemptions and transition provisions.

All members of the Committee will be appointed by, and will serve at the discretion of, the Board. The Board may appoint a member of the Committee to serve as the chairperson of the Committee (the “Chair”); if the Board does not appoint a Chair, the Committee members may designate a Chair by their majority vote. The Chair will set the agenda for Committee meetings and conduct the proceedings of those meetings.

III. RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

The principal responsibilities and duties of the Committee in serving the purposes outlined in Section I of this Charter are set forth below. These duties are set forth as a guide, with the understanding that the Committee will carry them out in a manner that is appropriate given the Company's needs and circumstances. The Committee may supplement them as appropriate and may establish policies and procedures from time to time that it deems necessary or advisable in fulfilling its responsibilities.

The Committee will:

1. Review the Company's overall compensation strategy, including base salary, incentive compensation and equity-based grants, to assure that it promotes stockholder interests and supports the Company's strategic and tactical objectives, and that it provides for appropriate rewards and incentives for the Company's management and employees, taking into account whether such rewards and incentives encourage undue or inappropriate risk taking by such personnel.

2. Annually review and approve the corporate goals and objectives to be considered in determining the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer (the "CEO") of the Company and the Company's other "executive officers" as defined under Rule 3b-7 and "officers" as defined under Rule 16a-1(f) promulgated under the Exchange Act (collectively with the CEO, the "Executive Officers"), and evaluate the performance of the CEO, for the purpose of setting the CEO's compensation, and other Executive Officers in light of these goals and objectives. Based on this evaluation, including an evaluation of the Company's performance, the Committee will have the sole authority, subject to any approval by the Board which the Committee or legal counsel determines to be desirable or is required by applicable law or the Exchange Rules, to make decisions respecting (i) the salary paid to the CEO and other Executive Officers, (ii) the grant of all cash-based incentive compensation and equity-based compensation to the CEO and other Executive Officers, (iii) the entering into or amendment or extension of any offer letter, employment contract or similar arrangement with the CEO or other Executive Officer, (iv) the entering into or amendment or extension of any CEO or other Executive Officer severance or change in control arrangements, and (v) any other CEO or other Executive Officer compensation matters; provided, that the Committee may take account of the recommendations of the Board (or other members of the Board) with respect to CEO and other Executive Officer compensation. The Committee also may take account of the recommendations of the CEO with respect to other Executive Officers for each of the foregoing items. The Committee will ensure that the CEO is not present during voting or deliberation by the Committee with respect to the CEO's performance and compensation.

3. Review, from time to time, and make recommendations to the Board with respect to, the adoption and approval of, or material amendments to, all equity-based incentive compensation plans and arrangements in which the Executive Officers and other employees of the Company or any subsidiary may participate, and the aggregate numbers of shares reserved for issuance thereunder, after taking into consideration the Company's strategies with respect to equity-based compensation.

4. Review and approve (i) immaterial amendments to equity-based incentive compensation plans and arrangements in which the CEO and other Executive Officers may participate and (ii) all cash-based incentive compensation plans and arrangements in which the Executive Officers and other employees of the Company or any subsidiary may participate, and the cash amounts reserved for payment thereunder, after taking into consideration the Company's strategies with respect to cash-based compensation.

5. Review and approve policies and procedures relating to perquisites and expense accounts of the CEO and other Executive Officers.

6. Administer and interpret the Company's cash-based and equity-based compensation plans and agreements thereunder.

The Committee may adopt an equity grant policy and delegate to the CEO or other Executive Officers (or, if not an Executive Officer, the Chief People Officer (or similar role) of the Company) (the “MCEA”), within the limits imposed by applicable law and the Exchange Rules, the authority to approve equity-based awards or grants under, and in accordance with, the Company’s equity incentive plans and such equity grant policy to employees of the Company or of any subsidiary of the Company who are not directors or Executive Officers of the Company.

7. Meet with the CEO annually to discuss the incentive compensation programs to be in effect for the Executive Officers and other employees of the Company or any subsidiary for such fiscal year and the corporate goals and objectives relevant to those programs and performance targets applicable to the CEO and the other Executive Officers and, where appropriate, other employees of the Company or any subsidiary.

8. Administer and, if deemed necessary, amend the Company’s 401(k) plan and any deferred compensation plans (collectively, the “Designated Plans”), and, if desired, delegate the routine administration of the Designated Plans to an administrative committee consisting of employees of the Company named by the Committee.

9. Have the sole authority to recommend to the Board, for determination and approval by the Board, the form and amount of cash-based and equity-based compensation to be paid or awarded to the Company’s non-employee directors, including compensation for service on the Board or on committees of the Board (including the Chair positions of each Board committee).

10. Review and discuss the “Compensation Discussion and Analysis” disclosure prepared in response to the requirement of Item 402(b) of Regulation S-K (or any successor disclosure item) (the “CD&A”) and, based on such review and discussion, recommend to the Board whether such CD&A should be included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K (the “Annual Report”) or annual meeting proxy statement, information statement or similar document (as applicable, the “Proxy Statement”), and prepare a report of the Committee (the “Committee Report”) for inclusion in the Annual Report and/or the Proxy Statement in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) so long as the Company is subject to the periodic reporting requirements of the Exchange Act and is required to prepare and include in its Annual Report or Proxy Statement the CD&A and Committee Report.

11. Oversee the Company’s compliance with regulatory requirements associated with compensation of its directors, officers and employees, including without limitation the methodologies and narrative disclosure related to the Company’s CEO “pay ratio” in accordance with Item 402(u) of Regulation S-K (to the extent the Company is required by the rules and regulations of the Commission to prepare and include in its Annual Report or Proxy Statement such disclosure).

12. Periodically review the Company’s procedures with respect to employee loans. The Committee will not approve any arrangement in which the Company, directly or indirectly, extends or maintains credit, arranges for the extension of credit or renews an extension of credit, in the form of a personal loan to or for any director or Executive Officer (or equivalent thereof) of the Company. The Committee will assist the Board and management of the Company in complying with this prohibition.

13. Periodically review with the CEO and the Chair or lead independent director of the Board the succession plans for senior management positions and report its findings and recommendations to the Board. If requested by the Board, the Committee will evaluate potential successors to Executive Officer positions and review strategies to accelerate the readiness of candidates identified for these positions, including an overall assessment of executive talent. The Committee will also review other leadership and management processes upon request of the Board.

14. When applicable, review and recommend to the Board for approval the frequency with which the Company will conduct stockholder advisory “say on pay” votes required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act (“Say on Pay Vote”), taking into account the results of the most recent stockholder advisory vote on the frequency of the Say on Pay Vote. Following any such vote on the frequency of the Say on Pay Vote, make recommendations to the Board regarding the frequency with which Say on Pay Votes will be included in the Company’s proxy statement pending the next such vote on the frequency of the Say on Pay Vote. When applicable, in connection with its evaluation of Executive Officer compensation, the Committee will consider the results of the most recent Say on Pay Vote and make such adjustments to the Company compensation practices for Executive Officers as it deems appropriate in response thereto, if any.

15. Review with management the Company’s major compensation-related risk exposures and the steps management has taken to monitor or mitigate such exposures.

16. Periodically consider and, if determined to be appropriate, make recommendations to the Board regarding adoption of policies regarding hedging and recovery of incentive-based compensation based on financial information required to be reported under the Exchange Act (or other federal securities laws) following restatement of such financial information or as may be required by the Commission, other applicable law, or as otherwise determined to be appropriate by the Committee.

17. Periodically review the composition of the Company’s workforce in terms of diversity; trends in compensation equity related to diverse populations; and the Company’s practices related to diversity.

18. Perform any other activities required by applicable law, rules or regulations, including the Exchange Rules and rules and regulations of the Commission, and take such other actions and perform and carry out such other responsibilities and duties delegated to it by the Board or as the Committee deems necessary or appropriate consistent with its purpose.

IV. STUDIES AND ADVISERS

The Committee may conduct or authorize studies of, or investigations into, matters within the Committee’s scope of responsibility, with full access to all books, records, facilities and personnel of the Company. The Committee has the sole authority and right, at the expense of the Company and at the sole discretion of the Committee, to retain and obtain the advice of legal counsel, compensation and other consultants, accountants, experts and other advisers of its choice to assist the Committee in connection with its functions, including any studies or investigations. The Committee will have the sole authority to approve the fees and other retention terms of such advisers. The Company will provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of reasonable compensation to any such advisers and the Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any such advisers.

The Committee may select, or receive advice from, a compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser to the Committee, other than in-house legal counsel, only after taking into consideration the following factors:

- the provision of other services to the Company by the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser;
- the amount of fees received from the Company by the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser, as a percentage of the total revenue of the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser;

- the policies and procedures of the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest;
- any business or personal relationship of the compensation consultant, legal counsel, other adviser or the person employing the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser with a member of the Committee;
- any stock of the Company owned by the compensation consultant, legal counsel, other adviser or the person employing the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser; and
- any business or personal relationship of the compensation consultant, legal counsel, other adviser or the person employing the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser with an Executive Officer.

Irrespective of the retention of legal counsel, consultants, accountants, experts and other advisers to assist the Committee, the Committee will exercise its own judgment in the fulfillment of its functions.

V. MEETINGS

The Committee will meet at least twice per year or more frequently, as determined appropriate by the Committee. The Chair, in consultation with the other member(s) of the Committee, will set the dates, times and places of such meetings. The Chair or any other member of the Committee may call meetings of the Committee by notice in accordance with the Company's Bylaws.

VI. MINUTES AND REPORTS

The Committee will maintain written minutes of its meetings and copies of its actions by written consent, and will cause such minutes and copies of written consents to be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the Board. The Chair will report to the Board from time to time with respect to the activities of the Committee.

VII. DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

The Committee may from time to time, as it deems appropriate and to the extent permitted under applicable law, the Exchange Rules and the rules and regulations of the Commission, and the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, form and delegate authority to subcommittees.

VIII. COMPENSATION

Members of the Committee will receive such fees, if any, for their service as Committee members as may be determined by the Board, which may include additional compensation for the Chair.

IX. REVIEW OF COMMITTEE COMPOSITION, PERFORMANCE AND CHARTER

The Committee may from time to time, as it deems appropriate, evaluate the Committee's composition and performance and make a report to the Board regarding such evaluation. The Committee will also review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter periodically, and recommend to the Board any changes the Committee determines are appropriate.

X. PUBLICATION

The Company shall make this Charter freely available to stockholders upon request and, provided that the Company is subject to the periodic reporting requirements of the Exchange Act, shall publish it on the Company's website.
