

ARMATA PHARMACEUTICALS, INC.
CHARTER OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

PURPOSE AND POLICY

The primary purpose of the Audit Committee (the “Committee”) shall be to act on behalf of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Armata Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the “Company”), in fulfilling the Board’s oversight responsibilities with respect to the Company’s corporate accounting and financial reporting processes, the systems of internal control over financial reporting, and audits of financial statements, as well as the quality and integrity of the Company’s financial statements and reports and the qualifications, independence and performance of the firm or firms of certified public accountants engaged as the Company’s independent outside auditors for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services (the “Auditors”) and the performance of the Company’s internal audit function. The Committee shall also provide oversight assistance in connection with the Company’s legal, regulatory and ethical compliance, including conducting periodic oversight of the Company’s risk management. The Committee shall also prepare the report required by the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) to be included in the Company’s annual proxy statement. The operation of the Committee shall be subject to the Bylaws of the Company as in effect from time to time.

The policy of the Committee, in discharging these obligations, shall be to maintain and foster an open avenue of communication among the Committee and the Board, the Auditors, the Company’s financial and executive management team and the Company’s internal audit function, if applicable.

COMPOSITION

The Committee shall consist of at least two members of the Board of Directors. The members of the Committee shall satisfy the financial literacy and, as affirmatively determined by the Board, the independence requirements of Rule 10A-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the New York Stock Exchange or NYSE American, as applicable (as applicable, the “NYSE”), applicable to Committee members, as in effect from time to time, when and as required by the NYSE. At least one member of the Committee shall satisfy the applicable NYSE requirement, as in effect from time to time, for accounting or related financial management expertise, as determined by the Board in its business judgment, when and as required by the NYSE. At least one member of the Committee must be an “audit committee financial expert” as defined in Item 407(d)(5)(ii) of Regulation S-K. A person who satisfies this definition of audit committee financial expert will also be presumed to have accounting or related financial management expertise. No member of the Committee can have participated in the preparation of the Company’s or any of its subsidiaries’ financial statements at any time during the past three years. No member of the Committee may serve simultaneously on the audit committee of more than two other public companies without prior approval of the Board. The members of the Committee shall be appointed by and serve at the discretion of the Board. Vacancies occurring on the Committee shall be filled by the Board. The Chairperson of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board.

MEETINGS AND MINUTES

The Committee shall hold such regular or special meetings as its members shall deem necessary or appropriate, but no less frequently than quarterly. In lieu of holding a meeting, the Committee may act by circulating a written consent to each member of the Committee. The written consent constitutes a valid action of the Committee if it has been executed by each Committee member. The written consent will be filed with the minutes of Board meetings. The Chairperson of the Committee shall report to the Board from time to time, or whenever so requested by the Board. Minutes of each meeting of the Committee shall be prepared and distributed to the Board and the Secretary of the Company promptly after each meeting.

AUTHORITY

The Committee shall have sole authority to appoint, determine compensation for, and at the expense of the Company, retain and oversee the Auditors as set forth in Section 10A(m)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules thereunder and otherwise to fulfill its responsibilities under this charter. The Committee shall have authority to retain and determine compensation for, at the expense of the Company, independent legal, accounting or other advisors or consultants as it deems necessary or appropriate in the performance of its duties. The Committee shall also have authority to pay, at the expense of the Company, ordinary administrative expenses that, as determined by the Committee, are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties. The Committee shall have full access to all books, records, facilities and personnel of the Company as deemed necessary or appropriate by any member of the Committee to discharge his or her responsibilities hereunder. The Committee shall have authority to require that any of the Company's personnel, counsel, accountants (including the Auditors) or investment bankers, or any other consultant or advisor to the Company, attend any meeting of the Committee or meet with any member of the Committee or any of its special legal, accounting or other advisors and consultants. The Committee shall have the authority to delegate any of its responsibilities, along with the authority to take action in relation to such responsibilities, to one or more subcommittees or designated members of the Committee as the Committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion. The approval of this charter by the Board shall be construed as a delegation of authority to the Committee with respect to the responsibilities set forth herein.

EDUCATION:

The Company is responsible for providing the Committee with educational resources related to accounting principles and procedures, current accounting topics pertinent to the Company and other material as may be requested by the Committee. The Company shall assist the Committee in maintaining appropriate financial literacy.

SUBSIDIARIES

The Committee shall be responsible for audit matters and the other matters described in this Charter with respect to the subsidiaries of the Company including the responsibility to oversee the accounting practices, system of internal controls, audit processes, financial processes and enterprise risk management of such subsidiaries.

COMPENSATION:

Members of the Committee shall receive such fees, if any, for their service as Committee members as may be determined by the Board. Such fees may include retainers or per meeting fees and shall be paid in such form of consideration as is determined by the Board in accordance with the applicable rules of the NYSE and the SEC.

Members of the Committee may not receive any compensation from the Company except the fees that they receive for service as a member of the Board or any committee thereof.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The Committee shall oversee the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board, and shall have direct responsibility for the appointment, compensation, retention, oversight and, if necessary, termination of the work of the Auditors and any other registered public accounting firm engaged for the purpose of performing other review or attest services for the Company. The Auditors and each such other registered public accounting firm shall report directly and be accountable to the Committee. The Committee's functions and procedures should remain flexible to address most effectively changing circumstances.

The Committee shall rely on the expertise and knowledge of management, the Auditors and, to the extent applicable, the Company's internal auditors (or other persons responsible for the Company's internal audit function) in carrying out its oversight responsibilities. Management is responsible for ensuring that the Company's financial statements are complete and accurate and prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). The Auditors are responsible for auditing the Company's financial statements and the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. It is not the duty of the Committee to plan or conduct audits, to determine that the financial statements are complete and accurate and are prepared in accordance with GAAP, to conduct investigations, or to assure compliance with laws and regulations or the Company's internal policies, procedures and controls.

To implement the Committee's purpose and policy, the Committee shall be charged with the following functions and processes with the understanding, however, that the Committee may supplement or (except as otherwise required by applicable laws or rules) deviate from these activities as appropriate under the circumstances:

1. Financial Reporting and Disclosure Controls. To review periodically the Company's financial reporting processes and disclosure controls and processes, based on consultation with management and the Auditors and counsel.

2. Evaluation and Retention of Auditors. To evaluate the performance of the Auditors, including the lead partner, to assess their independence and qualifications, taking into account the opinions of management and the internal auditors (or other personnel responsible for the internal audit function), and to determine whether to retain, or to terminate, the engagement of the existing Auditors, or to appoint and engage a different independent registered public accounting firm, and to present the Committee's conclusion to the full Board.

3. Communication Prior to Engagement. Prior to engagement of any prospective Auditors, to review a written disclosure by the prospective Auditors of all relationships between the prospective Auditors, or their affiliates, and the Company, or persons in financial oversight roles at the Company, that may reasonably be thought to bear on independence, and to discuss with the prospective Auditors the potential effects of such relationships on the independence of the prospective Auditors, consistent with the applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (the “PCAOB”).

4. Approval of Audit Engagements. To determine and approve engagements of the Auditors, prior to commencement of such engagements, to perform all proposed audit, review and attest services, including the scope of and plans for the audit, the adequacy of staffing, the compensation to be paid, at the Company’s expense, to the Auditors and the negotiation and execution, on behalf of the Company, of the Auditors’ engagement letters, which approval may be pursuant to preapproval policies and procedures established by the Committee consistent with applicable laws and rules, including the delegation of preapproval authority to one or more Committee members so long as any such preapproval decisions are presented to the full Committee at the next scheduled meeting.

5. Approval of Non-Audit Services. To determine and approve engagements of the Auditors, prior to commencement of such engagements (unless in compliance with exceptions available under applicable laws and rules related to immaterial aggregate amounts of services), to perform any proposed permissible non-audit services, including the scope of the service and the compensation to be paid therefor, which approval may be pursuant to preapproval policies and procedures established by the Committee consistent with applicable laws and rules, including the delegation of preapproval authority to one or more Committee members so long as any such preapproval decisions are presented to the full Committee at the next scheduled meeting.

6. Auditor Report. At least annually, to obtain and review a formal written report by the Auditors describing (i) that firm’s internal quality-control procedures, (ii) any material issues raised by the firm’s most recent internal quality-control review, peer review, PCAOB review or inspection of the firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, with respect to one or more audits performed by that firm, as well as any steps taken to address the issues raised, and (iii) all relationships between the firm and the Company or any of its subsidiaries, consistent with PCAOB Rule 3526, and to discuss with the Auditors this report and any relationships or services that may impact the objectivity and independence of the Auditors.

7. Audit Partner Rotation. To monitor the rotation of the partners of the Auditors on the Company’s audit engagement team, including the lead (or coordinating) audit partner (having primary responsibility for the audit), and to assure the regular rotation of the lead audit partner, as required by applicable laws and rules and to consider periodically and, if deemed appropriate, whether to adopt a policy regarding rotation of auditing firms, and to confirm with any independent auditor retained to provide audit services for any fiscal year that the lead (or coordinating) audit partner (having primary responsibility for the audit), or the audit partner responsible for reviewing the audit, has not performed audit services for the Company in each of the five previous fiscal years of the Company and that the firm meets all legal and professional requirements for independence.

8. Auditor Conflicts. At least annually, consistent with the applicable requirements of the PCAOB, to receive and review written statements from the Auditors delineating all relationships between the Auditors, or their affiliates, and the Company, or persons in financial oversight roles at the Company, that may reasonably be thought to bear on independence and a letter from the Auditors affirming their independence, to consider and discuss with the Auditors any potential effects of any such relationships on the independence of the Auditors, as well as any compensation or services that could affect the Auditors' objectivity and independence, and to assess and to otherwise take appropriate action to oversee the independence of the Auditors.

9. Former Employees of Auditors. To consider and adopt a clear policy regarding Committee preapproval of employment by the Company of individuals employed or formerly employed by the Auditors and engaged on the Company's account.

10. Audited Financial Statement Review. To review, upon completion of the audit, the financial statements proposed to be included in the Company's Registration Statements and Annual Report on Form 10-K to be filed with the SEC and to recommend whether or not such financial statements should be so included.

11. Annual Audit Results. To review and discuss with management and the Auditors the results of the annual audit, including the Auditors' assessment of the quality, not just acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles and practices, the Auditors' views about qualitative aspects of the Company's significant accounting practices, the reasonableness of significant judgments and estimates (including material changes in estimates), any material audit adjustments proposed by the Auditors and any adjustments proposed but not recorded, the adequacy of the disclosures in the financial statements and any other matters required to be communicated to the Committee by the Auditors under generally accepted auditing standards, including the standards of the PCAOB, or the requirements of the SEC, as appropriate.

12. Auditor Communications. At least annually, to discuss with the Auditors the matters required to be discussed by the applicable requirements of the PCAOB and the SEC.

13. Quarterly Results. To review and discuss with management and the Auditors, as appropriate, the results of the Auditors' review of the Company's quarterly financial statements, prior to public disclosure of quarterly financial information or filing with the SEC of the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, and any other matters required to be communicated to the Committee by the Auditors under generally accepted auditing standards, including the standards of the PCAOB, as appropriate.

14. Management's Discussion and Analysis. To review and discuss with management and the Auditors, as appropriate, the Company's disclosures contained under the caption "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in its periodic reports to be filed with the SEC.

15. Press Releases. To review and discuss with management and the Auditors, as appropriate, earnings press releases, and press releases containing information relating to material financial developments and earnings guidance provided to analysts and ratings agencies, which discussions may be general discussions with respect to the type of information to be disclosed or the type of presentation to be made.

16. Accounting Principles and Policies. To review and discuss with management and the Auditors, as appropriate, (i) all critical accounting policies and practices to be used in the audit; (ii) all alternative treatments of financial information within GAAP that have been discussed with management, the ramifications of the use of such alternative treatments and the treatment preferred by the auditors; and (iii) other material written communications between the auditors and management;

17. Management and Auditor Analyses. To review (i) significant issues regarding accounting principles and financial statement presentations, including any significant changes in the Company's selection or application of accounting principles, (ii) analyses prepared by management and/or the Auditors setting forth significant financial reporting issues and judgments made in connection with the preparation of the financial statements, including analyses of the effects of alternative GAAP methods on the financial statements; and (iii) the effect of regulatory, legal and accounting initiatives or developments, as well as off-balance sheet structures, on the Company's financial statements.

18. National Office Communications. To review with the Auditors, as appropriate, any communications between the audit team and the firm's national office with respect to auditing or accounting issues presented by the engagement.

19. Disagreements Between Auditors and Management. To review with management and the Auditors or any other registered public accounting firm engaged to perform review or attest services any material conflicts or disagreements between management and the Auditors or such other accounting firm, whether or not resolved, regarding financial reporting, accounting practices or policies or other matters, that individually or in the aggregate could be significant to the Company's financial statements or the Auditors' report, and attempt to resolve any conflicts or disagreements regarding financial reporting.

20. Management Cooperation with Audit. To evaluate the cooperation received by the Auditors during their audit examination, including a review with the Auditors of any significant difficulties with the audit or any restrictions on the scope of their activities or access to required records, data and information, significant disagreements with management and management's response, if any.

21. Management Letters. To review and discuss with the Auditors and, if appropriate, management, any management or internal control letter issued or, to the extent practicable, proposed to be issued by the Auditors and management's response, if any, to such letter, as well as any additional material written communications between the Auditors and management.

22. Critical Audit Matters. To review and discuss with the Auditors any critical audit matter ("CAM") addressed in the audit of the Company's financial statements and the relevant financial statement accounts and disclosures that relate to each CAM.

23. Internal Control Over Financial Reporting. To confer with management and the Auditors, as appropriate, regarding the scope, adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting, including the responsibilities, budget and staff of the internal audit function and significant deficiencies or material weaknesses identified by the Company's Auditors. To review with management and the Auditors any fraud, whether or not material, that includes management or other employees who have any significant role in the Company's internal control over financial reporting and any significant changes in internal controls or other factors that could significantly affect internal controls, including any corrective actions in regard to significant deficiencies or material weaknesses. To review the reports prepared by management, and assess the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's internal controls and procedures, prior to the inclusion of such reports in the Company's periodic filings as required under the rules of the SEC.

24. Separate Sessions. Periodically, to meet in separate sessions with the Auditors, the internal auditors (or other personnel responsible for the internal audit function), as appropriate, and management to discuss any matters that the Committee, the Auditors, the internal auditors (or other personnel responsible for the internal audit function) or management believe should be discussed privately with the Committee.

25. Complaint Procedures. To establish procedures, when and as required by applicable laws and rules, for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters and the confidential and anonymous submission by employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters, and to establish such procedures as the Committee may deem appropriate for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company with respect to any other matters that may be directed to the Committee for review and assessment.

26. Correspondence with Regulators. To consider and review with management, the Auditors, outside counsel, as appropriate, and, in the judgment of the Committee, such special counsel, separate accounting firm and other consultants and advisors as the Committee deems appropriate, any correspondence with regulators or governmental agencies and any published reports that raise material issues regarding the Company's financial statements or accounting policies.

27. Engagement of Registered Public Accounting Firms. To determine and approve engagements of any registered public accounting firm (in addition to the Auditors), prior to commencement of such engagements, to perform any other review or attest service, including the compensation to be paid to such firm and the negotiation and execution, on behalf of the Company, of such firm's engagement letter, which approval may be pursuant to preapproval policies and procedures, including the delegation of preapproval authority to one or more Committee members, so long as any such preapproval decisions are made, and presented to the full Committee, in accordance with such policies and procedures.

28. Code of Business Conduct and Ethics. To review the Company's Code of Conduct and Ethics (the "Code") at least annually and recommend such changes to the Code as the Committee shall deem appropriate, periodically review Company policy statements to determine their adherence to the Code, and consider any request by directors or executive officers of the Company for a waiver from the Code.

29. Ethical Compliance; Compliance with Legal and Regulatory Requirements. To review the results of management's efforts to monitor compliance with the Company's programs and policies designed to ensure adherence to applicable laws and regulations, as well as to its Code.

30. Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG). Review with management the type and presentation of the Company's ESG disclosures and the adequacy and effectiveness of applicable internal controls related to such disclosures.

31. Related-Person Transactions. To review, approve or prohibit, and provide oversight of related-person transactions in accordance with the Company's Related Party Transaction Policy, including reviewing the Company's Related Party Transaction Policy at least annually and recommending changes to such policy as the Committee shall deem appropriate. The Committee shall also keep the Auditors informed of the Committee's understanding of the Company's relationships and transactions with related parties that are significant to the Company, and shall review and discuss with the Auditors the Auditors' evaluation of the Company's identification of, accounting for and disclosure of its relationships and transactions with related parties, including any significant matters arising from the audit regarding the Company's relationships and transactions with related parties.

32. Investment Policy. To review, on a periodic basis, as appropriate, the Company's investment policy and recommend to the Board any changes to the investment policy.

33. Investigations. To investigate any matter brought to the attention of the Committee within the scope of its duties if, in the judgment of the Committee, such investigation is necessary or appropriate.

34. Proxy Report. To prepare the report required by the rules of the SEC to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement.

35. Annual Charter Review. To review and assess the adequacy of this charter annually, or as conditions or circumstances dictate, and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

36. Report to Board. To report to the Board with respect to material issues that arise regarding the quality or integrity of the Company's financial statements, the Company's compliance with legal or regulatory requirements, the performance or independence of the Auditors, the performance of the Company's internal audit function or such other matters as the Committee deems appropriate from time to time or whenever it shall be called upon to do so.

37. Risk Oversight. To review the Company's overall enterprise risk management framework, including the Company's overall risk exposures and the Company's processes around the management and monitoring of such risks, and the allocation of responsibilities for specific risk areas across the Company's management, the Board and committees of the Board. The Committee will discuss with the Company's management the Company's major financial, financial information security (including cybersecurity), legal, reporting and compliance risk exposures and the steps management has taken to monitor and control such exposures, including the Company's risk assessment and risk management policies and guidelines.

38. Annual Committee Evaluation. To conduct an annual evaluation of the performance of the Committee.

39. General Authority. To perform such other functions and to have such powers as may be necessary or appropriate in the efficient and lawful discharge of the foregoing.

It shall be the responsibility of management to prepare the Company's financial statements and periodic reports and the responsibility of the Auditors to audit those financial statements. These functions shall not be the responsibility of the Committee, nor shall it be the Committee's responsibility to ensure that the financial statements or periodic reports are complete and accurate, conform to GAAP or otherwise comply with applicable laws.
