

LABOR RIGHTS AND HUMAN RIGHTS POLICY

Cars.com Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively, "CARS") are committed to ethical business practices and compliance with all laws and regulations, including with respect to labor and human rights. CARS is committed to treating employees with the utmost dignity and respect. CARS requires that its employees, and all individuals in its supply chain, are paid in accordance with applicable laws, are working in safe labor conditions and are working of their own free will. Our approach to program design is to engage stakeholders to understand their priorities. We believe that early, proactive stakeholder consultation is beneficial to both the company and the community and makes for high-impact, sustainable outcomes.

CARS encourages suppliers to follow CARS policies, including our labor rights and human rights policy, and may evaluate a supplier's performance with regard to labor and human rights practices when selecting new suppliers. To the extent that our suppliers retain or utilize subcontractors and/or sub-suppliers to perform work or supply goods pursuant to our contracts, CARS expects our suppliers to use only subcontractors or sub-suppliers that will adhere to these requirements and to monitor such compliance. CARS reserves the right to audit any supplier's compliance with these requirements.

Non-Discrimination

CARS is committed to providing a workplace free from discriminatory harassment and complying with all applicable federal, state and local laws governing nondiscrimination in employment.

It is the policy of CARS not to discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, religion or creed, national origin or ancestry, sex, pregnancy, sexual orientation, or gender (including gender nonconformity and status as a transgender or transsexual individual), marital status, age, physical or mental disability (actual or perceived), citizenship, genetic information, past, current, or prospective service in the uniformed services, arrest record, expunged, or sealed convictions. This policy covers any employee, applicant, contractor, intern, volunteer, manager, supervisor, officer, director, client, vendor, or any other third party encountered in connection with company business. In addition, this policy forbids anyone from retaliation for reporting harassment or cooperating in an investigation of such conduct. Any employee, regardless of position or title, who is found to have subjected another individual to harassment or who retaliates against another person in violation of this policy will be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment.

Fair Working Conditions

No Forced Labor: CARS prohibits any form of forced labor, including slavery and human trafficking, in our supply chain. CARS (1) does not engage in or support child labor, human trafficking or slavery; (2) does not knowingly support companies that utilize any form of child labor, human trafficking or slavery; and (3) expects our suppliers to meet those same standards.

No Child Labor: CARS explicitly prohibits the use of any child labor in its workforce. All individuals must be in compliance with applicable minimum age requirements, and in the absence of such local minimum age requirements, must be at least 15 years of age. CARS also prohibits the use of any physically or mentally coercive or abusive employment practices. CARS prohibits the use of any forced labor.

Fair Wages: CARS requires that all individuals doing work on its behalf are paid a fair wage and that all applicable minimum wage laws are complied with.

Work Hours: CARS prohibits requiring any individual to work in excess of any maximum hours set by local law.

Water as a Fundamental Right: CARS recognizes water as a fundamental human right, and as such ensures that all employees have access to clean drinking water at our offices and facilities.

Compliance with Laws: CARS requires that it, and its suppliers, comply with all applicable laws, orders, rules, regulations and requirements enforced by any foreign or domestic governmental body or entity relating to the design, production, sale, distribution and/or provision of goods and/or services to CARS, which necessarily include antislavery and anti-human trafficking laws.

Freedom of Association

Consistent with applicable laws and regulations, suppliers shall respect the legal rights of their employees to choose whether or not to join a trade union, workers' organization or any other similar group and to collectively bargain if they choose to be represented.

Consistent with applicable laws and regulations, CARS respects the legal rights of employees to choose whether or not to join a trade union, workers' organization or any other similar group, to collectively bargain if they choose to be represented and to submit grievances without fear of retaliation. Grievances may be reported, anonymously if desired, to the CARS Ethics Line, which is administered by an independent provider and can be reached in any of the following ways (all of which are available 24/7):

Electronically at: www.lighthouse-services.com/cars.com

Or by toll-free telephone at:

- English speaking USA and Canada: 833-222-1735
- Spanish speaking USA and Canada: 800-216-1288
- Spanish speaking Mexico: 01-800-681-5340
- French speaking Canada: 855-725-0002

CARS will follow up on all grievances received.

Reporting Violations of This Policy

If you believe that there has been a violation of any of the principles set forth in this policy, or that CARS or an organization conducting business with or on behalf of CARS has violated this policy, please contact the Chief Legal Officer or the CARS Ethics Line. CARS has a strict anti-retaliation policy for any reports made in good faith.

Effective Date: March 18, 2020

Revised Date: January 1, 2023

Policy Contact: Legal Department

Applies to: Cars.com, Inc. and its subsidiaries