

Human Rights Policy Statement

Hyster-Yale, Inc., and its subsidiaries, including its operating company, Hyster-Yale Materials Handling, Inc. (collectively “Hyster-Yale”) is a leading, globally integrated full-line lift truck manufacturer. Subsidiaries and affiliates of Hyster-Yale Materials Handling, Inc. include Bolzoni S.p.A, a leading worldwide producer of attachments, forks, and lift tables, under the Bolzoni, Auramo and Meyer brand names; and Nuvera Fuel Cells, LLD, an alternative power technology company focused on fuel cell stands and engines.

Hyster-Yale as a global company is committed to corporate responsibility and as such places great priority on our People, our Business, and our World. We consider that Human Rights are inherent and that when we shield these rights we cultivate the necessary conditions for human respect, regard, freedom, and justice while fostering a fair and just workplace for our employees.

Hyster-Yale has developed the following principles, policies and practices that demonstrate its own respect for and commitment to the fundamental Human Rights of people everywhere. These policies apply to all Hyster-Yale employees and those doing business with or on behalf of Hyster-Yale. These policies apply at all Hyster-Yale locations and wherever Hyster-Yale business is conducted.

► Our People

COMPENSATION

Equitable compensation and benefits for all employees that are fair and consistent with the local market. Hyster-Yale through effective Corporate Governance has established a strong, independent compensation committee to provide strategic guidance on the development of human capital strategies and programs to support Hyster-Yale’s strategic business plan and ensure responsible compensation.

DISCRIMINATION, HARRASSMENT, AND BULLYING

Hyster-Yale is committed to the principle that all employees should enjoy a workplace that is free from all forms of discrimination, bullying and harassment. Unwelcome conduct or comments based upon an individual’s race, color, national origin, religion, age, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, or disability are not tolerated. In keeping with our principles, Hyster-Yale employees worldwide regularly participate in Anti-Harassment training.

Hyster-Yale does and will investigate all allegations of discrimination and harassment in as prompt and confidential a manner as possible and will take corrective action when warranted.

► Our Business

BUSINESS PARTNERS

Hyster-Yale is committed to protecting Human Rights in its operations and supply chains. Hyster-Yale does not tolerate the exploitation nor harassment of people in our business. Hyster-Yale does not use and specifically forbids the use of forced or child labor in any of its operations and is committed to ensuring that forced labor or child labor does not occur in its supply chain around the world.

Hyster-Yale collaborates with suppliers who align with our principles, and we expect our Business Partners to share our commitment to respect Human Rights. Through outreach and training, Hyster-Yale promotes awareness of forced labor with our suppliers. Business Partners are required to understand and comply with our Code of Conduct for Business Partners which specifically prohibits the use of forced labor of any kind and applies to all our agents, consultants, dealers, distributors, sales and service agents, and suppliers. By conducting business with Hyster-Yale, Business Partners certify that they do not use slavery, human trafficking, forced labor, child labor, or any other form of inhumane treatment at any stage of their respective supply chains. Additionally, Business Partners consent to Hyster-Yale performing periodic and comprehensive reviews of their business operations (and their subcontractors, as appropriate) to ensure compliance with Hyster-Yale’s policies.
