MGM Launches Short Film to Promote Responsible Gaming

[December 6, 2018, Macau] MGM has always been an avid supporter of Macau Government's responsible gaming measures, coupled with efforts of raising the awareness of responsible gaming to its team members. To date, MGM has provided over 32,000 training hours on responsible gaming for its team members with an average of 1.5 hours per team members each year. To further support the "Responsible Gambling Promotions 2018", the annual campaign organized by Macau Gaming Inspection and Coordination Bureau, Social Welfare Bureau, and Institute for the Study of Commercial Gaming of the University of Macau, the Company hosted a two-week program themed "Gambling is Not Business, Stay in Control" for its Golden Lion Team members at its two properties, MGM MACAU and MGM COTAI. Initiatives included MGM's homemade short film, animation, workshops, roadshows, professional counselling services and online quizzes.

Responsible Gaming Roadshow

MGM believes that awareness among team members is the key to make responsible gaming an integral part of their daily operations. Therefore, the Company set up various booths with interactive games and quizzes, information boards, promotional materials and WeChat chat rooms, at its back-of-the-house areas at both MGM MACAU and MGM COTAI, increasing awareness of responsible gaming and gambling disorders among its team members. The event attracted around 1300 participants and received positive feedback.

Responsible Gaming Workshop

To provide a more in-depth knowledge about responsible gaming and identification on gambling disorder, MGM hosted two workshops for about 200 team members on December 4 and 6. Participants could have a better understanding of the topics such as gambling probability and its prevailing myths, risks of borrowing money and credit card overdrafts, and prevention of gambling disorder.

Encourage Team Members to Seek Assistance

MGM launched its fourth homemade short film "Responsible Gaming", directed and produced by MGM with all the roles played by its own team members. It serves as a reminder to the employees and their family members to seek assistance anytime and anywhere through the Employee Assistance Program, especially through its onsite counselling services for prompt assistance while encountering gambling disorder or other difficulties in their daily lives.

The latest short film is now available on various social media platforms, including MGM's Facebook page "MGM Careers" and YouTube (search with keywords "MGM Employee Assistance Program Short Film").
