

MGM Held Annual Blessing Ceremony for Its Dragon Boat Team

Send Best Wishes for Another Year of Success for the Golden Lion Team

MGM earlier held the annual blessing ceremony for its Dragon Boat Team at the Nam Van Lake Nautical Center. Led by a team of MGM's senior executives, the ceremony was to extend best wishes to 56 MGM team members, who are all vaccinated and will take part in the "Macao International Dragon Boat Races 2022". Comprised of over 85% of local employees, the Dragon Boat Team will compete across three categories.

Senior executives of MGM, including Kenneth Feng, President, Chief Strategic & Financial Officer; Hubert Wang, President & Chief Operating Officer; Wendy Yu, Executive Vice President of Human Resources; and Peter Chen, Senior Vice President of VIP Marketing, performed a series of traditional rituals, such as offering incense, carving a suckling pig and eye-dotting the dragon boats — a gesture made to symbolically awaken the spirit of the boats, followed by an energetic performance by the cheerleading squad. The ceremony was then drawn to a successful closing as Graeme Croft, Vice President of Table Games; May Leong, Assistant Vice President of Table Games, together with the Dragon Boat Team, rowed together during the ceremony to send best wishes for another year of success.

MGM Dragon Boat Team achieved extraordinary results at the Macao International Dragon Boat Races 2021. With its exceptional capability and perseverance, the Golden Lion Team has won two first runners-up in the Macao Standard Dragon Boat Race – Women Category (500m) and Macau Small Dragon Boat Race – Women Category (200m).

Fong Wai Bing, one of the team members from the women's team, said, "With the undivided support of our Company, we devoted ourselves to months of intensive training, striving to carry out our best performance and attain good results in the coming races."
