

MGM Commemorates China's May Fourth Movement and Inspires Macau Youths on the Opportunities at the In-Depth Cooperation Zone in Hengqin

In commemoration of the 104th Anniversary of the "May Fourth Movement", MGM jointly organized the "MGM Commemoration of China's May Fourth Movement Activities" with Livelihood Affairs Bureau of Guangdong-Macao In-Depth Cooperation Zone in Hengqin (DSAS) and Macau Youth Federation. The event included a sharing session on "Macau Youth's Development in Guangdong-Macao In-Depth Cooperation Zone in Hengqin" hosted by the Director of DSAS and Chairman of the Organising Committee for May 4 Youth Day Celebration, then a promotion on "May Fourth Movement Community Outreach eLearning program", a screening session of "Back to Common Roots Narrative Film", and a tea-time talk with the Director of DSAS, which attracted 150 participants from local schools, youth associations and MGM team. The event aimed to encourage youth to live out the spirit of the May Fourth Movement and contribute to the development of the nation, the Greater Bay Area (GBA) and the In-Depth Cooperation Zone, as well as to cultivate a sense of national belonging and patriotism.

Hosted at MGM COTAI, the event was supported by a lineup of guests, including: Huang Yu Jie and Xu Feng Mei, Director and Deputy Director of DSAS; Zhou Quan, Level-three Researching Technician of the Education and Youth Department of the Liaison Office of the Central People's Government in the Macao SAR; O Man Ian, Acting Head of Department of Youth of Education and Youth Development Bureau of the Macao SAR; Wong Ka Lun and Anita Tai, Director-General and Secretary-General of Macao Youth Federation; Tang Man Kei, Chairman of the Organising Committee for May 4 Youth Day Celebration and Head of the Youth Affairs Committee of UGAMM; Mandy Chan, President of Tea Art Professionals' Association of Macao; Francis Tan and Benjamin Hong, Vice President and Director of Learning & Talent Management of MGM.

Huang Yu Jie, Director of DSAS shared the development insights of the Guangdong-Macao In-Depth Cooperation Zone in Hengqin (Zone) with the participants, particularly in aspects of its strategic positioning, management, and the supportive measures for local youth working and living in the Zone. As mentioned by Huang, the SAR government endeavors to benefit the youth with the supportive policies offered by both the Macau and Guangdong governments, so that they can develop their career and live in the Zone with ease. On top of the established cross-border licensing policy for various professions and online job-hunting platforms, the authorities are also proactively setting up incubation platforms to attract young entrepreneurs of emerging industry to start their business in the Zone.

Tang Man Kei, Chairman of the Organising Committee for May 4 Youth Day Celebration and Head of the Youth Affairs Committee of UGAMM, stressed the significance of the “May Fourth Movement” and the spirit of patriotism that it carries. He encouraged the youth to seize the new development opportunities, take part in the “1+4” diverse development initiative of Macau, and ultimately contribute to the development of both GBA and the Zone. On the other hand, he also introduced the community support and facilities available in the Zone and the GBA.

Wendy Yu, Executive Vice President of Human Resources of MGM said, “MGM spares no effort in educating youth with national development, where the Company has been collaborating with various sectors of the community to host a diverse lineup of national education series. For the third year, MGM joins hands with Macau Youth Federation to launch the ‘May Fourth Movement Community Outreach eLearning program’ and the ‘Youth Day’ online quiz, which enable team members and the public general to understand the core spirit of the Movement and the historical significance behind, inspiring them to adhere such patriotic spirit and contribute to the nation.”

Following the sharing session, a group of participants took part in the tea-time talk with the director of DSAS, which was supported by the Tea Art Professionals’ Association of Macao. The occasion enabled both the director and the participating youths to exchange their thoughts on the future of the Zone.

About MGM

MGM is an abbreviation for MGM China Holdings Limited (HKEx: 2282) and is a leading developer, owner and operator of gaming and lodging resorts in the Greater China region. We are the holding company of MGM Grand Paradise, SA which holds one of the six gaming concessions to run casino games in Macau. MGM Grand Paradise, SA owns and operates MGM MACAU, the award-winning premium integrated resort located on the Macau Peninsula and MGM COTAI, a contemporary luxury integrated resort in Cotai, which opened in early 2018 and more than doubles our presence in Macau.

MGM MACAU is a Forbes Five-Star luxury integrated resort inspired by the arts with every element of the resort infused with creativity and style. MGM MACAU has approximately 600 guest rooms and suites and boasts a number of distinguishing features, including the architecturally stunning European-inspired Grande Praça, housed under a soaring glass ceiling. MGM MACAU's world class facilities include the MGM Art Space, dedicating over 5,000 square feet to display authentic works of art, conference and event facilities, spa, and seven signature restaurants and bars to fulfill any gastronomic craving. Our property is conveniently located on the Macau Peninsula and is directly connected to the luxury retail shopping complex, One Central.

MGM COTAI is the latest integrated resort of MGM in China. Designed as the "jewelry box" of Cotai, it offers approximately 1,400 hotel rooms and suites, Asia's first dynamic theater, meeting space, high end spa, retail offerings and food and beverage outlets as well as the first international Mansion at MGM for the ultimate luxury experience. The Spectacle at MGM COTAI becomes the record holder of the largest free-span gridshell glazed roof (self-supporting) on January 19, 2019, making it the first architectural and structural GUINNESS WORLD RECORDS™ title for Macau, China. MGM COTAI is being developed to drive greater product diversification and bring more advanced and innovative forms of entertainment to Macau as it grows as a global tourist destination. MGM COTAI is the only mega complex and hotel in Macau to gain three-star certification in both Green Building Design and Operation Label, as well as the first hotel in the Greater Bay Area and second in Greater China to receive the certifications.

MGM China is majority owned by MGM Resorts International (NYSE: MGM) one of the world's leading global hospitality companies, operating a portfolio of destination resort brands including Bellagio, ARIA, MGM Grand, Mandalay Bay and Park MGM.
