

MGM Participates in Indonesia Mega Roadshow

*Showcasing the Charm of Cultural Tourism
Expanding International Source Markets*

MGM is proactively expanding its international source markets by creating exciting “Tourism+” experiences for its culturally diverse guests. From May 9 to 12, MGM participated in a mega roadshow in Jakarta, Indonesia, organized by the Macao Government Tourism Office (MGTO), to entice Indonesian travelers to learn more about MGM’s tourism and entertainment offerings. MGM also attended the “Macao Tourism + MICE Product Updates Seminar & Travel Mart” in the city on May 8, organized by MGTO, to exchange views with representatives from the Indonesian travel industry and explore possible collaborations to further penetrate the Indonesian tourism market.

The roadshow was held at Central Park Mall in Jakarta, where MGM’s booth showcased elements of Southeast Asia’s natural esthetics. At the center of the booth was a capsule lucky draw machine designed with MGM’s Golden Lion emblem. The presence of MGM’s mascot Leo delighted the audience and prompted them to participate in the lucky draw with prizes include accommodation discounts, as well as exclusive souvenirs. Furthermore, the accommodation offer comes with both Macau LRT passes and MGM “Macau Cruise” tickets, aiming to promote the “Barra CityWalk” route which synergized “culture + tourism + transportation, showcasing Macau’s rich historical and cultural heritage, and strengthening the city’s reputation as a World Center of Tourism and Leisure.

Indonesia, with a predominantly Muslim population, represents a significant and promising tourism market to Macau in Southeast Asia. Earlier this year, MGM and MGTO co-organized a seminar on Islamic customs and cultural etiquette, aiming to sharpen the hospitality skills for MGM’s team members and even local professionals to serve Muslim visitors. This seminar embodies MGM’s respect for cultural diversity and commitment to quality service. MGM will continue to expand its business globally and strive to provide superior experiences for guests from diverse cultural backgrounds.

With the core value of “originality and innovation”, MGM has been constantly introducing fresh initiatives to cater to various tastes and needs of visitors. This time, MGM delivers its latest and upcoming activities and event information to Indonesia, demonstrating the Company’s fascinating array of cultural and entertainment happenings. These include but are not limited to the unprecedented residency show MGM 2049 in collaboration with world-renowned Chinese filmmaker Zhang Yimou and its dining offerings recognized by Forbes and Michelin.
