B. Committee Membership

The Nominating Committee shall consist of no fewer than three independent, non-executive directors of the Company. Members of the Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the Board upon the recommendation of the Nominating Committee and may be removed by the Board in its discretion. Each member of the Nominating Committee must satisfy the requirements of NASDAQ and the rules and regulations of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and other applicable laws relating to independence, as determined by the Board in its business judgment. Any action duly taken by the Committee shall be valid and effective, whether or not the members of the Committee at the time of such action are later determined not to have satisfied the requirements for membership provided herein.

The resignation, suspension or removal of a director who is also a member of the Nominating Committee shall automatically constitute his or her resignation, suspension or removal, as applicable, from the Nominating Committee.

C. Committee Powers, Duties and Responsibilities

1. Director Nominees. The Nominating Committee shall recommend nominees to the Board for nomination to the next annual or extraordinary General Meeting, as applicable, and to fill any vacancies on the Board. This responsibility includes working with the full Board to establish criteria for Board membership, reviewing candidates' qualifications and any potential conflicts with the Company's interests, assessing the contributions of current directors in connection with their nomination for reappointment, and making recommendations to the full Board with respect to these matters, with respect to a proposal to the General Meeting for the removal of a director and with respect to the suspension by the Board of an executive director. The Nominating Committee shall present all nominees, to the extent practical, in a timely fashion to minimize disruption in the Company's business and at such a time as to allow for the full consideration of the nominees by the Board and the timely submission of any filing required by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. The Committee shall prepare a plan for the succession of Board members.

2. Director Criteria. The Nominating Committee shall select individuals as director nominees who shall have the highest personal and professional integrity, who shall have demonstrated exceptional ability and judgment and who shall be most effective, in conjunction with the other nominees to the Board, in collectively serving the long-term interests of the Company and its shareholders and all other stakeholders. In selecting director nominees, the Nominating Committee shall assess the nominee's independence and may consider, among other things, the following, all in the context of an assessment of the perceived needs of the Board at that time:

- diversity, nationality, gender, age, background, education skills and experience, as well as the restrictions, requirements and recommendations concerning those matters under applicable law, NASDAQ rules or best practice provisions of the Dutch Corporate Governance Code in relation to the full Board and/or the individual directors;
- personal qualities, high ethical standards and characteristics, accomplishments, and reputation in the business community;
- knowledge and contacts in the communities in which the Company conducts business and in the Company's industry or other industries relevant to the Company's business;
- ability and willingness to devote sufficient time to serve on the Board and committees of the Board;
- knowledge and expertise in various areas deemed appropriate by the Board; and
- fit of the individual's skills, experience, and personality with those of other directors in maintaining an effective, collegial, and responsive Board.

After the evaluation described above, the Nominating Committee shall select director nominees and recommend the appointment of such director nominees to the Board. The Nominating Committee shall provide information of the director candidates that may be relevant for the Board's consideration and/or which are required to be provided to the Company's

General Meeting pursuant to applicable laws, rules or regulations if and when such candidates are nominated for appointment. The Board shall then select director nominees for shareholders to consider and vote upon at the General Meeting.
