

PLAYA HOTELS & RESORTS N.V.

Charter of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors

A. Purpose

The principal purposes of the Compensation Committee (the “Compensation Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Playa Hotels & Resorts N.V. (the “Company”) shall be: (i) discharging responsibilities relating to compensation of the Company’s Chief Executive Officer, other executive officers and directors, taking into consideration, among other factors, any shareholder vote on compensation; (ii) implementing and administering the Company’s incentive compensation plans and equity-based plans; (iii) overseeing and assisting the Company in preparing the Compensation Discussion & Analysis (the “CD&A”) for inclusion in the Company’s proxy statement and/or annual report on Form 10-K, when required by the rules of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”); and (iv) preparing and submitting for inclusion in the Company’s proxy statement and/or annual report on Form 10-K a Compensation Committee Report, each as more fully described below, in accordance with applicable rules and regulations.

B. Committee Membership

The Compensation Committee shall consist of no fewer than three independent non-executive directors of the Company. Members of the Compensation Committee will be appointed by the Board upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board and may be removed by the Board in its discretion. Each member of the Compensation Committee must (i) satisfy the independence requirements of the NASDAQ Stock Market (“NASDAQ”), and any rules and regulations of the SEC and any other applicable laws relating to independence, as determined by the Board in its business judgment, including standards specifically applicable to compensation committee members and (ii) qualify as a “non-employee director” for purposes of Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). In addition, no more than one member of the Compensation Committee may be a member of the management board or an executive director of another Dutch listed company. Any action duly taken by the Committee shall be valid and effective, whether or not the members of the Committee at the time of such action are later determined not to have satisfied the requirements for membership provided herein.

The resignation, suspension or removal of a director who is also a member of the Compensation Committee shall automatically constitute his or her resignation, suspension or removal, as applicable, from the Compensation Committee.

C. Committee Powers, Duties and Responsibilities

1. Executive Officer Compensation. The Compensation Committee shall (i) review and approve on an annual basis, the corporate goals and objectives with respect to compensation for the Company’s Chief Executive Officer (the “CEO”) and other executive officers, (ii) evaluate the performance of such executive officers in light of the corporate goals and objectives approved by the Compensation Committee and (iii) on the basis of such evaluation, determine and recommend compensation paid by the Company to the CEO and approve compensation paid by the Company to the other executive officers, including, to the extent applicable (a) the compensation structure, (b) the annual base salary amount, (c) any annual bonus payment, as calculated in accordance with each such executive's employment or service agreement, if applicable (d) any equity-based compensation, including shares and options and/or other variable compensation components, (e) any deferred or long-term incentive compensation, (f) the relevant performance criteria and their application, (g) any proposed severance arrangements, change in control, consulting and similar agreements/provisions, and any amendments, supplements or waivers to the foregoing agreements, in each case as, when and if deemed necessary or appropriate, (g) pension rights, and (h) any perquisites, special or supplemental benefits, all in accordance with applicable law, rules and regulations, and to the extent appropriate or necessary to comply with any federal securities or tax law requirements, such as Rule 16b-3 of the Exchange Act. To the extent such compensation is set forth in employment or service agreements, such agreements, and any material amendments to such agreements, will be subject to the review and approval of the Compensation Committee. In determining the appropriate compensation for the CEO and other executive officers of the Company, the Compensation Committee should consider the Company's performance and the interests of its stakeholders, including relative shareholder return, the amount of compensation paid or payable, including incentive awards, to the Company's CEO in past years, the amount of compensation payable, including incentive awards, to similarly-situated officers at comparable companies, any shareholder vote on compensation and any other factors the Compensation Committee deems necessary or appropriate in its discretion. The Compensation Committee shall also ensure that compensation plans are designed with an appropriate balance of risk and reward in relation to the Company's overall business strategy and do not encourage excessive or unnecessary risk-taking behavior. In addition, the Compensation Committee shall ensure that such programs encourage high performance, promote accountability and assure that executive officers' interests are aligned with the interests of the Company's stakeholders. When considering or recommending compensation of the CEO (and approving compensation with respect to the other executive directors) of the Company, the Compensation Committee shall adhere to the Company's compensation policy as adopted by the Company's general meeting of shareholders (the "General Meeting") from time to time (the "Compensation Policy"). The Compensation Committee also shall periodically evaluate existing agreements with the Company's executive officers for continuing appropriateness.

2. Compensation of Non-Executive Directors. The Compensation Committee shall (i) review and evaluate, at least on an annual basis, the compensation for non-executive directors, including Board and committee retainers, meeting fees, equity-based compensation and such other forms of compensation as the Compensation Committee may consider appropriate and (ii) recommend to the full Board, as appropriate, changes to such compensation. The Compensation Committee shall consider the compensation payable to non-executive directors at comparable companies and any other factors it deems necessary or appropriate in making recommendations to the Board with respect to the compensation of directors. When considering, recommending or approving compensation of the directors of the Company, the Compensation Committee shall adhere to the Compensation Policy and the Non-Executive Director Compensation Policy. Executive directors will not receive any compensation for service as a director of the Company.

3. Equity Compensation Plans. The Compensation Committee shall review the Company's executive compensation policies and plans and shall implement and administer the Company's incentive compensation plans and equity-based plans, as approved by the General Meeting (to the extent required under applicable law), including, but not limited to, (i) approving equity-based awards, including option grants, (ii) interpreting such plans, (iii) determining rules and regulations relating to such plans, (iv) modifying or canceling existing grants or awards, (v) determining the number of shares underlying grants and awards to directors, officers and other employees of the Company or its subsidiaries and (vi) imposing limitations, restrictions and conditions upon any grant or award as the Compensation Committee deems necessary or appropriate. At least annually, the Compensation Committee shall assess the desirability of proposing and make recommendations to the Board with respect to any new incentive-compensation plans and equity-based plans and any increase in shares reserved for issuance under existing plans.

4. CD&A. The Compensation Committee shall oversee and assist the Company in preparing the CD&A for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and/or annual report on Form 10-K, as well as other Company reports (when and as necessary) filed with the SEC. The Compensation Committee shall provide a description of the processes and procedures for the consideration and determination of executive and director compensation, as required for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement, all in accordance with applicable rules and regulations. The Compensation Committee shall review and discuss the CD&A with the Company's executive officers (the "Management") and, based on the review and discussion, make a recommendation to the Board regarding whether to include the CD&A in the Company's proxy statement and/or annual report on Form 10-K.

5. Annual Compensation Committee Report Pursuant to SEC Rules. The Compensation Committee shall prepare an annual Compensation Committee Report, as required by Item 407(e)(5) of Regulation S-K, for inclusion in the Company's annual proxy statement and/or annual report on Form 10-K in accordance with applicable rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC.

6. Annual Compensation Committee Report Pursuant to Dutch Law. The Compensation Committee shall prepare an annual Compensation Committee Report pursuant to Dutch law and the Dutch Corporate Governance Code (the "DCGC") which contains, at a minimum, a discussion of the manner in which the Compensation Policy was implemented in the prior fiscal year, an explanation of how the Compensation Policy contributes to the achievement of the long-term objectives of the Company and its business. The Compensation Committee Report shall be posted on the Company's website.

7. Delegation to Management or Subcommittee. The Committee, by resolution approved by a majority of the Committee, may form and delegate any of its responsibilities to a subcommittee so long as such subcommittee is solely comprised of two or more members of the Committee and such delegation is not otherwise inconsistent with law and applicable rules and regulations of the SEC and the Nasdaq Stock Market; provided that any subcommittee shall report any actions taken by the subcommittee to the full Compensation Committee at its next regularly scheduled meeting. In addition, to the extent permitted by applicable law and consistent with the requirements of applicable law, the Committee also may delegate all compensation decisions for employees of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company who are not directors or executive officers of the Company to an Executive Director or subcommittee of the Compensation Committee, provided that, any delegate shall report any actions taken by the delegate to the full Compensation Committee at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

8. Compensation Policy and Clawback Policy. The Compensation Committee shall review the Compensation Policy and recommend to the Board any changes it deems appropriate. The Compensation Policy shall address the compensation of directors (including the executive directors) and must include the matters described in Sections 2:383c through 2:383e of the Dutch Civil Code. In addition, the Compensation Committee shall administer the Company's Executive Compensation Recovery Policy in accordance with the standards of NASDAQ and Section 2:135 of the Dutch Civil Code and shall make determinations with respect to the "clawback" of compensation under the Executive Compensation Recovery Policy.

9. Say-on-Pay. The Compensation Committee shall review the results of shareholder votes on executive compensation ("Say-on-Pay Votes") and, if appropriate, consider these results in connection with the determination of executive compensation and incentive compensation and equity-based plans. In addition, the Compensation Committee shall review and recommend to the Board the frequency of Say-on-Pay Votes, taking into account the results of the most recent stockholder advisory vote on frequency of Say-on-Pay Votes required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act.

10. Compensation Review. The Compensation Committee, in consultation with Management, will review the Company's policies and procedures with respect to risk assessment and risk management for compensating all employees, including non-executive officers, and shall periodically report its findings to the Board.

11. Performance Evaluation. At least annually, the Compensation Committee shall undertake a self-evaluation of the performance of the Compensation Committee, including an assessment of its performance in light of the duties and responsibilities set forth in this Charter and such other matters as the Compensation Committee may deem necessary or appropriate in its discretion. In connection with such performance evaluation, the Compensation Committee also shall review and assess the adequacy of this Charter, and propose to the Board for its review and approval any changes to this Charter deemed necessary or appropriate.

12. Succession Plan. At least annually, the Compensation Committee shall review the Company's succession plan for key executive positions.

13. Other. The Compensation Committee shall have such other power, authority, duties and responsibilities as may be assigned to it by the Board from time to time.

D. Committee Structure and Operations

1. Meetings. The Compensation Committee shall meet with such frequency and at such intervals as it shall determine is necessary to carry out its duties and responsibilities, but in any case no less frequently than once each year. A quorum at any Compensation Committee meeting shall be at least a majority of the members. The Compensation Committee shall establish a schedule of meetings to be held each year and may schedule additional meetings as it determines to be necessary or appropriate. The Compensation Committee may meet by telephone or videoconference and may take action by unanimous written consent. The Compensation Committee may invite to meetings such officers of the Company or other persons as the Compensation Committee deems necessary or appropriate in its discretion, however executive directors may not be present at any meeting in which his or her compensation is deliberated. Minutes of each meeting shall be kept and distributed to each member of the Compensation Committee.

2. Chairperson. The Board shall appoint a Chairperson of the Compensation Committee. The Chairperson of the Compensation Committee shall be responsible for leadership of the Compensation Committee, including presiding, when present, at all meetings of the Compensation Committee, preparing the agenda, making committee assignments and reporting for the Compensation Committee to the Board at its next regularly scheduled meeting following the meeting of the Compensation Committee. If the Chairperson is not present at a meeting of the Compensation Committee, the members present at the meeting shall designate one such member as the acting Chairperson for the meeting. The Compensation Committee may not be chaired by the Lead Independent Director, a former executive director of the Company, nor by a director who is also a member of the management board or an executive director of another listed company.

3. Procedures. The Compensation Committee may adopt such procedures relating to the conduct of its proceedings as it deems appropriate.

4. Retention and Termination of Outside Advisors. The Compensation Committee shall have the sole authority to retain and terminate outside legal or other advisors to the Compensation Committee as it deems necessary and appropriate in its sole discretion, including compensation consultants. In selecting any such advisors or consultants, the Compensation Committee shall consider the independence of such advisor or consultant, as determined by it in its business judgment, in accordance with the standards of NASDAQ, any applicable rules and regulations of the SEC, the DCGC and other applicable laws relating to independence of advisors and consultants. The Compensation Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of the advisors and consultants. The Compensation Committee shall have the sole authority to approve the fees and other retention terms for such outside advisors. The Company shall provide appropriate funding for payment of the compensation (as determined by the Compensation Committee in its sole reasonable opinion) of such outside advisers retained by the Compensation Committee, as well as reasonable ordinary administrative expenses of the Compensation Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.

5. Reporting to Full Board. The Compensation Committee shall report regularly to the Board regarding the matters reviewed and the actions taken at each meeting of the Compensation Committee and make appropriate recommendations for action by the Board.

6. Resources. The Compensation Committee shall have full access to any relevant records of the Company.

E. Disclosure

This Charter, as may be amended from time to time, shall be posted on the Company's website. The Company shall state in its annual proxy statement that this Charter is available on the Company's website and provide the website address.

F. Other Activities

The Compensation Committee shall perform any other activities consistent with this Charter, the Company's articles of association and the internal rules applicable to the Board as the Board deems appropriate.
