As a result, the Company shall not make any repurchases during such time under the NCIB.

4. Factors Affecting the Results of Operations

Revenues

The Company's revenues are derived from the sale of mattresses and accessories through its Banners. Mattresses revenue includes sales of mattresses, lifestyle adjustable bases, boxsprings and frames. Accessories revenue includes the sales of pillows, sheets, duvets, weighted blankets, quilts, duvet covers, mattress toppers, mattress and pillow protectors, pet beds, throws, sleep bundles, headboards, footboards, nightstands, bath linens, sleep wear, delivery fees and warranties.

Revenue is recognized when the performance obligation is deemed to be fulfilled and the control of the products has been transferred to the customer and there is no unfulfilled obligation that could affect the customer's acceptance of the products. Provisions for returns relating to the Company's various customer satisfaction programs are accrued based on historical experience.

Building on the Company's strong brands and market position, the Company seeks opportunities to grow its same store sales (or "SSS"- see section "Non-IFRS and Other Measures"), which includes revenues from both its existing retail stores and digital channels. The Company's revenue growth initiatives include:

- adding stores in both new and existing markets;
- growing and optimizing its eCommerce platforms;
- expanding its product assortment;
- reaching more customers through targeted marketing;
- partnering with new third-party online marketplace sellers;
- growing lifetime value with existing customers through serving more of their sleep needs; and
- growing revenue through strategic channel and brand partnerships.

SSS is primarily driven by:

- changes in customer traffic across sales channels through effective marketing and word of mouth;
- changes in the conversion rate of shoppers into buyers;
- changes in the average transaction size;
- changes in economic conditions and consumer confidence; and
- customer loyalty through effective customer engagement and satisfaction.

The Company's revenues are impacted by competition from other retailers that sell similar products and by seasonal patterns.

Product Expansion Opportunities

One of the Company's goals is to serve its customers' sleep needs by offering them a variety of best-in-class sleep products available in the market across all its Banners. Over the last few years, the Banners have introduced new innovative mattresses, including hybrid mattresses-in-a-box, as well as sleep products, some of which include adjustable bases, pillows, sheets, duvets, duvet covers, mattress protectors, pillow protectors, mattress toppers, weighted blankets, bath towels and sleepwear.

The Company continues to deepen and expand its product assortment through in-house innovations, sourcing new sleep products, strategic business partnerships and acquisitions.

To provide its customers with the best available sleep products, the Company has entered into several exclusive partnerships with industry leaders in the North American and European sleep space:

- Simba, a U.K. leading mattress-in-a-box and sleep accessories retailer; and;
- Malouf, a U.S. industry leader in innovative bedding and furniture products.

Additionally, the Company has established drop ship arrangements with select vendors to provide sleep products from brands such as Nautica, Eddie Bauer, Laura Ashley, Sheex, Tuck and If Only Home. This program enables the delivery of select sleep products to be shipped directly from the Company's vendors to its customers. This capability allows the Company to offer its customers an increased product assortment without increasing its inventory risk while achieving time, resource and cost efficiencies. The Company continues to strategically expand its drop ship program.

The Company will continue to explore opportunities to expand its product assortment to better meet its customers' sleep needs.

Online Expansion Opportunities

The Company has multiple eCommerce platforms: sleepcountry.ca, dormezvous.com, endy.com, hush.ca, hushblankets.com, silkandsnow.com and casper.ca.

The Company's eCommerce platforms provide customers access to the full assortment of products, both in-store and online, across Canada. The Company's banners - Hush and Silk & Snow – also retail in the USA through their eCommerce platforms. Additionally, the Company has a wide range of products that are only available online through the Company's various drop ship arrangements. These websites are supported via phone and/or online chat providing customers access to sleep expertise like the in-store customer experience.

The Company has also expanded its sleep ecosystem through partnerships with third-party online marketplaces to increase its customer reach, diversify its sales channels and further bolster its omnichannel offering. The Company partnered with Walmart Canada to supply mattresses and sleep accessories on the Walmart.ca marketplace. Through this partnership, the Company offers Walmart customers a wide assortment of mattress brands, in addition to its leading accessories including pillows, pillowcases, sheets, weighted blankets, mattress protectors, mattress toppers, platforms and pet beds.

The Company also has a partnership with Best Buy Canada, one of Canada's largest omnichannel retailers, to offer a selection of the Company's sleep solutions on the Best Buy Marketplace. The Company exclusively retails the traditional mattress category on BestBuy.ca, offering a wide assortment of the Company's most recognized mattress brands. In addition, the Company offers lifestyle bases and a leading assortment of sleep accessories including pillows, sheets, duvets on the Best Buy Marketplace.

Store Expansion Opportunities

The Company has the ability to add new stores in existing markets (in-fill stores), satellite markets and new markets. An existing market or in-fill opportunity is a pre-existing built-out region in which the Company already has an established store presence serviced by one or more existing warehouses. A satellite market is a new region that is adjacent or close to a pre-existing built-out region, which benefits from advertising spill and is serviced logistically from the nearby warehouse. A new market is a brand-new territory in which the Company did not previously operate, requiring incremental advertising, warehousing and distribution/logistics.

The Company has successfully expanded its store network every year since its inception in 1994. The capacity to expand its store presence depends on the Company's ability to choose new locations, new markets, to hire and train new associates for its stores and warehouses and create top-of-mind brand awareness for its Banners.

Stores in enclosed malls provide the Company with a unique opportunity to gain the attention of the captive audience, while capitalizing on the decline of department stores in recent years. As at June 30, 2024, the Company had 20 mall stores in Canada.

The Company's site selection strategy is focused on maximizing sales per store and per region throughout its store network. Prior to identifying and ultimately selecting locations for new stores, the Company conducts extensive analysis utilizing the following factors:

- demographics including population density, household income and population growth rates;
- store visibility and accessibility;
- lease and advertising economics;
- competitive dynamics;
- overlap with existing stores and distribution footprint; and
- potential cannibalization of existing stores.

In terms of regional expansion, once a target area has been determined, the Company focuses on ensuring the Company can successfully incorporate its culture, vision and purpose into the new region. To attain this goal, the Company starts by ensuring its new core regional team is comprised of existing associates in leadership roles who are willing to relocate. The experienced team is then supplemented with local hires, who receive extensive in-store and classroom training.

The following table summarizes the Company's corporate-owned store count for the periods ended June 30, 2024 and June 30, 2023:

Store Design

The Company continuously evaluates its store design to provide customers with the optimal shopping experience. The Company has developed a new store layout, which it is currently piloting in three stores.

Competition

The sleep industry is highly competitive and includes national and regional full-line furniture retailers, department stores, mass merchants, small regional specialty bedding retailers, eCommerce retailers and online marketplaces. The Company is Canada's leading specialty sleep retailer with its national retail store network and multiple eCommerce platforms, including its retail presence on several prominent third-party online marketplaces. The Company believes it can maintain and strengthen its leading market position through its differentiated sleep ecosystem, trusted brands, unmatched product assortment, superior sleep expertise and customer experience. The Company continues to actively assess opportunities for infrastructure, channels, partnerships, products and customer experience improvements across all its Banners to best serve Canadians' sleep needs.

Supply Chain

The Company relies on third party manufacturers to obtain its merchandise. Merchandise is sourced domestically in Canada as well as from countries around the world (for example - U.S., China, Italy and Spain). The Company can be adversely impacted by political, regulatory, economic and legal factors including duties, tariffs, sanctions, pandemics, labour strikes, currency exchange rates and other factors relating to foreign trade.

Seasonality

The retail sleep industry is affected by seasonal conditions. The Company typically experiences higher sales and a greater proportion of income during the third and fourth quarters due to seasonal factors including the concentration of the summer and holiday season. Sales have historically trended lower in the first quarter as consumers tighten their spending after the holiday season and shop less in the cold winter months.

The table below illustrates the Company's average percentage of annual sales by quarter for 2019, 2022 and 2023 from the Company's banners. Due to the uncertainties of the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic in Canada in 2020 and 2021, the Company did not include 2020 and 2021 in the below mentioned sales seasonality. The extent of COVID-19's impact on the overall economy, consumer purchasing behaviour and the impact of public health measures, such as mandated store closures, are uncertain and may have had an impact on seasonality in the retail sleep space.

First quarter	22%
Second quarter	24%
Third quarter	28%
Fourth quarter	26%
Annual total	100%

Gross Profit

Gross Profit is calculated from Revenues less Cost of Sales. Gross Profit Margin is defined as Gross Profit divided by Revenues.

Cost of Sales includes product-related costs - net of rebates, sales and distribution costs including compensation, occupancy and depreciation costs. Rebates are driven by the volume of inventory purchased. As an additional incentive, certain suppliers offer step-up thresholds for higher volume rebates. Rebates on inventories sold are recorded as a reduction to Cost of Sales.

Gross Profit Margin is affected by changes in average unit selling prices ("AUSP"), sales product mix and Cost of Sales.

9. Segment Reporting

The Company manages its business on the basis of five operating segments, Sleep Country/Dormez-vous, Endy, Hush, Silk & Snow, and Casper Canada which is consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision-maker, the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"). The Company has only one reportable segment as the operating segments meet the aggregation criteria of IFRS 8 - Operating Segments. The Company aggregates these reporting segments because the nature of products, services, methods of distribution and economic characteristics are similar. The Company operates primarily in Canada, its country of domicile.

10. Liquidity and Capital Resources

Liquidity

The Company's primary sources of cash consist of existing cash balances, operating activities and available credit facilities. The Company's primary uses of cash are to fund operating expenses, capital expenditures, finance costs, tax expenses, principal debt payments, dividends, business acquisitions, investments and share repurchases.

The Company believes cash generated from operations, together with cash on hand and amounts available under the Company's credit facilities will be sufficient to meet its future cash requirements. However, the Company's ability to fund future cash requirements will depend on its future operating performance. This could be affected by general economic, financial and other factors including factors beyond its control, despite the risk management strategies that the Company puts in place. See the section entitled "Risk Factors" in the AIF for a discussion of the various risks and uncertainties that may affect the Company's ability to fund its future cash requirements.

The Company reviews new store openings, acquisitions and investment opportunities in the normal course of its business and may, if suitable opportunities arise, realize these opportunities to meet the Company's business strategy. Historically, the funding for any such acquisitions or investments has come from cash flow generated from operating activities and/or additional debt.

The Company's cash balance was $34.2 million with an additional $83.3 million (not including the $100.0 million accordion) of liquidity available under the Company's credit facility as at June 30, 2024.

A summary of net cash flows by activities is presented below for YTD 2024 and YTD 2023:

The increase in working capital in YTD 2024 was primarily driven by higher trade and other receivables, inventories and prepaid expenses and deposits, and lower trade and other payables and deferred revenues, which were partially offset by lower other current assets.

Net cash flows provided by operating activities in YTD 2023 were $51.9 million and consisted of the positive impact of cash generated from operating activities of $74.6 million offset by $22.8 million of cash used as a result of an increase in working capital. The increase in working capital in YTD 2023 was primarily driven by higher trade and other receivables and prepaid expenses and deposits, and lower trade and other payables and deferred revenues which were partially offset by lower inventories

Net cash flows used by investing activities

Net cash flows used by investing activities in YTD 2024 were $17.6 million and consisted primarily of capital expenditure related to enhancements on the Company's digital transformation projects, leasehold improvements, computer hardware and furniture and equipment, in addition to the initial consideration of $1.7 million paid for the purchase of the remaining 32% outstanding common shares of Hush Blankets Inc. from the non-controlling shareholders.

Net cash flows used by investing activities in YTD 2023 were $98.1 million and consisted primarily of $58.9 million used in the acquisitions of Silk & Snow and Casper Canada, $20.1 million invested in the convertible note receivable and warrant, with the remaining cash flows used mainly on the Company's digital transformation projects, leasehold improvements, computer hardware and furniture and equipment.

Contractual obligations

In addition to shareholder approval, the Arrangement is subject to approval by the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) and regulatory approval under the Competition Act (Canada), as well as the satisfaction of certain other customary closing conditions. The completion of the Arrangement is not subject to any financing condition.

In connection with and subject to closing the Transaction, the Company will apply to have its common shares delisted from the TSX and the Company will cease to be a reporting issuer under Canadian securities laws.

Further details of the Transaction and the Arrangement Agreement will be set out in the management information circular that will be prepared and mailed to Company shareholders in connection with the Meeting, and which will be filed by the Company under its issuer profile on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.com.

Capital Resources

Senior secured credit facility

The Company has a senior secured credit facility of $260.0 million with an additional $100.0 million available on its accordion, which is scheduled to mature on October 22, 2026. Under the terms of the senior secured credit facility, the Company must comply with certain financial and non-financial covenants. The Company is in compliance with all covenants as at June 30, 2024.

The senior secured credit facility is secured by the present and after acquired personal property of the Company. As at June 30, 2024, the balance outstanding on the senior secured credit facility was $176.7 million (December 31, 2023 – $161.3 million). The long-term debt liability balance in the consolidated statements of financial position is net of transaction costs of $0.6 million (December 31, 2023 – $0.7 million).

The senior secured credit facility allows for the debt to be held in Canadian or US dollars. As at June 30, 2024, the Company held the debt in Canadian dollars.

Interest on the senior secured credit facility is based on the Canadian prime rate, the Term Canadian Overnight Report Rate Average ("CORRA") or the secured overnight financing rate ("SOFR") plus applicable margins based on the achievement of certain targets. The Company entered into a fixed interest rate swap, effective April 1, 2021 ending on April 1, 2024, for the notional amount of $60,000 whereby the Company paid a fixed rate of 1.072% and received interest at a variable rate equal to the Canadian Dollar Offered Rate for 3-month bankers' acceptances ("3-month CDOR") on the notional amount. As at June 30, 2024, the Company had not entered into a new fixed interest rate swap.

Off-balance sheet arrangements

The Company did not have any material off-balance sheet arrangements as at June 30, 2024 and June 30, 2023, nor did it have any subsequent to June 30, 2024.

Related party transactions

There were no material changes to the Company's related party transactions reported in the 2023 Annual MD&A.

11. Risk Factors

The Company's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk, credit risk, liquidity risk, capital risk and technology risk. The Company's overall risk management program and business practices seek to minimize any potential adverse effects on its financial performance.

Risk management is carried out by the senior management team and it is reviewed by the Board.

For an understanding of other potential risks, including, non-financial risks, see the section entitled "Risk Factors" in the AIF.

Market Risk

Market risk is the loss that may arise from changes in factors such as interest rates, foreign exchange rates and the impact these factors may have on other counter-parties.

Foreign Exchange Risk

The Company's operating results are reported in Canadian dollars. A portion of the Company's sales and purchases are denominated in U.S. dollars which results in foreign currency exposure related to fluctuations between the Canadian and U.S. dollars. The Company does not currently use foreign exchange options or forward contracts to hedge its foreign currency risk relating to sales and purchases. A sudden increase in the U.S. dollar relative to the Canadian dollar could result in higher costs to the Company, which could in turn result in increased prices and reduced sales, decreased profit margins and could negatively impact the Company's business and financial results.

Cash Flow and Fair Value Interest Risk

The Company's income and operating cash flows are substantially independent of changes in market interest rates.

The Company's interest rate risk arises primarily from its long-term debt. The Company may use interest rate derivatives to manage its interest rate risk, as well as, it may use a combination of fixed and variable rate debt and varying lengths of terms to achieve the desired proportion of variable and fixed rate debt. As at June 30, 2024, the Company has not entered into an interest rate derivative arrangement. Additionally, the Company has leases that carry interest at variable rates.

Credit Risk

Credit risk refers to the risk of losses due to the failure of the Company's customers or other counter-parties to meet their payment obligations. Credit risk arises from deposits with banks, receivables with counter-parties as well as credit exposures from vendors for the payment of volume and co-operative advertising rebate amounts and balances owed from third-party financing companies under the various financing plans the Company offers its customers. In order to manage the Company's credit risk, the Company closely monitors its financial assets and holds its deposits at highly rated financial institutions. Sales to retail customers are settled in cash, financed by third-party financing companies or by using major credit cards. The Company transfers the credit risk for financing plans to third-party financing companies. The third-party financing company that the Company deals with carries a minimum rating of BBB or better.

There are no significant impaired receivables that have not been provided for in the allowance. There are no significant amounts considered past due or impaired.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk the Company will not be able to meet a demand for cash or fund its obligations as they come due. It also includes the risk of not being able to liquidate assets in a timely manner at a reasonable price. Prudent liquidity management implies maintaining sufficient cash and the availability of funding through an adequate number of committed credit facilities.

Capital Risk

The Company's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard its ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for its common shareholders in the form of cash dividends, benefits to other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to minimize the cost of capital.

In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may issue new shares, purchase its own shares or sell assets to reduce long-term debt.

Technology and Cyber Security Risk

The Company continues to undertake investments in new IT systems to improve the operating effectiveness of the Company. Failure to successfully migrate from legacy systems to the new systems or a significant disruption in the Company's current IT systems during the implementation of the new systems could result in a lack of accurate data to enable management to effectively manage day-to-day operations of the business or achieve its operational objectives causing significant disruptions to the business and potential financial losses.

In addition, in the normal course of its business, the Company collects, uses, discloses and retains sensitive and confidential customer and employee information. Although the Company has security measures in place, the Company's facilities and systems and those of its third-party service providers may be vulnerable to security breaches, hacking, computer viruses, misplaced or lost data, programming and/or human errors and other similar events. Any security or data privacy incident, including one involving the misappropriation, loss or other unauthorized use or disclosure of confidential or personal information, whether by the Company or its vendors, could damage the Company's reputation and its relationships with its customers, expose the Company to risks of litigation and liability and may have a material adverse effect on the Company's business.

12. Critical Accounting Estimates and Judgments

A summary of significant accounting policies is included in Note 3 of the Company's audited annual consolidated financial statements for year ended December 31, 2023. The Company's critical accounting estimates are included in Note 4 of the Company's audited annual consolidated financial statements for year ended December 31, 2023 and are described below.

Critical accounting estimates require management to make certain judgments and estimates, which may differ from actual results. Accounting estimates are based on historical experience and other factors that management believes to be reasonable under the time frame and circumstances. Changes in management's accounting estimates can have a material impact on the financial results of the Company.

The unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements of the Company for Q2 2024 have been prepared using critical accounting estimates consistent with those in Note 4 of the Company's audited annual consolidated financial statements for year ended December 31, 2023.

13. Financial Instruments

As at June 30, 2024, the financial instruments consisted of cash, trade and other receivables, convertible note receivable, warrant, trade and other payables, deferred revenues, long-term debt under the Company's senior secured credit facility and contingent consideration liability.

- The carrying values of cash, trade and other receivables, trade and other payables, deferred revenues approximate their fair values due to the relatively short periods to maturity of these financial instruments.
- The carrying value of the long-term debt under the Company's senior secured credit facility approximates its fair value as the terms and conditions of the borrowing arrangements are comparable to market terms and conditions as at June 30, 2024.
- The convertible note receivable is recognized at fair value measured using the Black-Scholes pricing model and the Crank-Nicolson finite difference method. The convertible note receivable's fair value is dependent on future operations of the payee and significant changes in the payee's operations, cash flows and asset base may impact the recoverability of the convertible note receivable's fair value.
- The warrant is recognized at fair value measured using the Binomial option pricing model.

- The redemption liabilities related to the acquisition of Hush were initially recognized at fair value measured at the expected outcome (discounted) determined based on an earnings formula and the expected earnings levels over the measurement period and subsequently measured at amortized cost.
- The contingent consideration liability related to the acquisition of Silk & Snow was initially recognized at fair value measured at the expected outcome (discounted) determined based on an upon an earnings formula and the expected achievement levels against certain growth and profitability targets in aggregate over the contingency period and subsequently measured at amortized cost.

The Company's financial instruments are exposed to certain financial risks, including currency risk, interest rate risk, credit risk and liquidity risk, which are discussed above under the section "Risk Factors".

14. Internal Controls Over Financial Reporting

Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining appropriate internal controls over financial reporting ("ICFR"). ICFR is designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of the Company's financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements in accordance with IFRS. In designing ICFR, it should be recognized that due to inherent limitations, any controls, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives and cannot provide absolute assurance with respect to the prevention or detection of misstatements. Additionally, management is required to use judgment in evaluating ICFR.

Management is also responsible for establishing and maintaining a system of disclosure controls and procedures to provide reasonable assurance that all material information relating to the Company and its subsidiary is gathered and reported to senior management on a timely basis so that appropriate decisions can be made regarding public disclosure.

The Company's ICFR includes policies and procedures that (i) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company, (ii) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the Company, and (iii) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

A "material weakness" in ICFR is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in ICFR, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of a company's annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected in a timely basis by the organization's internal controls.

The Certifying Officers have evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's ICFR as at June 30, 2024 using the framework established in 'Internal Control - Integrated Framework (COSO Framework)' published by The Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO), 2013. Based on that evaluation, the Certifying Officers concluded that the ICFR, as defined by National Instrument 52-109 – Certification of Disclosure on Issuers' Annual and Interim Filings, are appropriately designed and were operating effectively as at June 30, 2024 and that no material weaknesses were identified through their evaluation.

15. Current and Future Accounting Standards

The unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the same accounting policies and methods of computation as the annual consolidated financial statements of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2023. The Company has not early adopted any standard, interpretation or amendment that has been issued but is not yet effective. Several amendments apply for the first time in 2024, but do not have an impact on the unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements of the Company.

16. Outstanding Share Data

As of the date hereof, 33,901,254 common shares and no Class A common shares of the Company are issued and outstanding. As of the date hereof, 1,005,903 stock options to purchase an equivalent number of common shares, 234,006 performance share units, 328,153 restricted share units and 113,029 deferred share units are issued and outstanding. For further details concerning the rights, privileges and restrictions attached to the common shares and the Class A common shares, please refer to the section entitled “Capital Structure” in the AIF.

17. Non-IFRS and Other Measures

The Company prepares its consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards. In order to provide additional insight into the business, to provide investors with supplemental measures of its operating performance and to highlight trends in its business that may not otherwise be apparent when relying solely on IFRS financial measures, the Company has also provided in this MD&A certain supplementary financial measures, such as SSS, non-IFRS measures such as EBITDA, Operating EBITDA, Adjusted net income, Basic adjusted EPS, Diluted adjusted EPS, and non-IFRS ratios including Operating EBITDA margin each as defined below. These measures are provided as additional information to complement IFRS measures by providing further understanding of the Company’s results of operations from management’s perspective. Management also uses these measures in order to facilitate operating performance comparisons from period to period, to prepare annual operating budgets and forecasts and to determine components of management compensation. The Company also believes that securities analysts, investors and other interested parties frequently use these measures in the evaluation of issuers.

Readers are cautioned that these measures are not recognized under IFRS Accounting Standards and do not have a standardized meaning prescribed by IFRS Accounting Standards. They are therefore unlikely to be comparable to similarly titled measures presented by other publicly traded companies. Accordingly, they should not be considered in isolation nor as a substitute for analysis of the Company’s financial information reported under IFRS Accounting Standards. See below for further details concerning how the Company calculates these measures and for reconciliations to the most comparable IFRS measures.

Same Store Sales (SSS)

SSS is a supplementary financial measure used in the retail industry to compare sales derived from established stores over a certain period compared to the same period in the prior year. The Company has embarked on an omnichannel approach to engaging with customers. This approach allows customers to shop online for home delivery or purchase in any store locations. Due to the customer cross-channel behavior, the Company reports a single comparable sales metric, inclusive of store and eCommerce channels. This measure does not include sales from the Company’s Express Stores. SSS helps to explain what portion of revenue growth can be attributed to growth in established stores and eCommerce sales.

The Company calculates SSS as the percentage increase or decrease in sales from stores and eCommerce platforms opened and operated for at least 12 complete months relative to the same period in the prior year.

EBITDA, Operating EBITDA, and Operating EBITDA margin

EBITDA and Operating EBITDA are used by the Company to assess its operating performance.

EBITDA is defined as net income attributable to the Company adjusted for:

- non-controlling interests;
- other expenses (income);
- finance related expenses;
- income taxes; and
- depreciation and amortization.

Operating EBITDA is defined as EBITDA adjusted for:

- special project costs;
- ERP implementation costs; and
- share-based compensation.

Operating EBITDA margin is defined as Operating EBITDA divided by Revenues.

Adjusted net income attributable to the Company

Adjusted net income attributable to the Company is used by the Company to assess its operating performance. Adjusted net income attributable to the Company is defined as net income attributable to the Company adjusted for:

- special project costs;
- ERP implementation costs;
- share-based compensation; and
- accretion on the redemption liabilities related to the Hush acquisition and accretion on the contingent consideration liability related to the Silk & Snow acquisition.

Basic adjusted earnings per share (Basic adjusted EPS)

Basic adjusted EPS is defined as adjusted net income attributable to the Company divided by weighted average number of shares issued and outstanding during the period.

Diluted adjusted earnings per share (Diluted adjusted EPS)

Diluted adjusted EPS is defined as adjusted net income attributable to the Company divided by weighted average number of shares issued and outstanding during the period adjusted for the effects of dilutive stock options, performance share units, restricted share units and deferred share units.
