

SPYRE THERAPEUTICS, INC.

NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

1. Members. The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Spyre Therapeutics, Inc. (the “Company”) appoints a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of at least two members, consisting entirely of independent directors, and designates one member as chair of the Committee or delegates the authority to designate a chair to the Committee. For purposes hereof, an “independent” director is a director who meets the Nasdaq Stock Market (“Nasdaq”) standards for directors, as determined by the Board.

2. Purpose, Duties and Responsibilities. The purpose of the Committee is to engage in succession planning for the Board, identify individuals qualified to become members of the Board (consistent with criteria approved by the Board), recommend director candidates to the Board and perform a leadership role in shaping the Company’s corporate governance. Among its specific duties and responsibilities, the Committee will:

- (a) Develop and recommend to the Board criteria for identifying and evaluating director candidates and periodically review these criteria and recommend changes to the Board as appropriate.
- (b) Periodically evaluate the composition of the Board to assess whether the skills, experience, characteristics and other criteria established by the Board are currently represented on the Board as a whole and with respect to each individual director, and to assess the criteria that may be needed in the future.
- (c) Identify, review the qualifications of and recruit director candidates for election to the Board.
- (d) Assess the qualifications, contributions and independence of incumbent directors in determining whether to recommend them for reelection to the Board.
- (e) Discuss succession planning for the Board and key leadership roles on the Board and its committees.
- (f) Establish procedures for the consideration of director candidates recommended for the Committee’s consideration by the Company’s stockholders.
- (g) Recommend to the Board director candidates for election or reelection to the Board at the Company’s annual meeting of stockholders.
- (h) Recommend to the Board director candidates to be elected by the Board as necessary to fill vacancies and newly created directorships.
- (i) Develop and recommend to the Board a set of corporate governance principles, and periodically review these principles and recommend changes to the Board as appropriate.

- (j) Periodically review the Board’s leadership structure and recommend changes to the Board as appropriate.
- (k) Make recommendations to the Board concerning the size, structure, composition and functioning of the Board and its committees.
- (l) Recommend committee members and chairs to the Board for appointment.
- (m) Approve directorships at other for-profit organizations offered to directors and executive officers of the Company.
- (n) Oversee the orientation process for new directors and ongoing education for directors.
- (o) Oversee the evaluation of the Board and its committees.
- (p) Oversee the Company’s stockholder engagement activities.
- (q) Oversee and make recommendations to the Board with respect to the management of the Company’s strategy, initiatives, risks, opportunities and reporting on material environmental, social, and governance (“ESG”) matters, to the extent not otherwise overseen by another Board committee and otherwise in coordination with other Board committees as appropriate, and provide updates and make recommendations on such matters to the full Board, as the Committee determines to be appropriate.
- (r) Periodically review and receive updates from management on the Company’s ESG programs, initiatives and disclosures and the Company’s progress and performance against ESG-related goals and metrics.
- (s) Annually evaluate the performance of the Committee and the adequacy of the Committee’s charter and recommend changes to the Board as appropriate.

3. Subcommittees. The Committee may delegate its duties and responsibilities to one or more subcommittees as it determines appropriate.

4. Outside Advisers. The Committee has the authority to retain such outside counsel, experts and other advisers as it determines appropriate to assist it in the performance of its functions, including any search firm used to identify director candidates, and will receive appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, from the Company, for the payment of compensation to any such advisers and for the payment of ordinary administrative expenses that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out the Committee’s duties.

5. Meetings. The Committee will meet as often as may be deemed necessary or appropriate, in its judgment, at such times and places as the Committee or its chair determines. A majority of the members of the Committee constitutes a quorum. The Committee will report regularly to the Board with respect to its activities.
