

TETRA TECHNOLOGIES, INC.
BOARD OF DIRECTORS
HUMAN CAPITAL MANAGEMENT and
COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

CHARTER

This Charter documents the composition, duties, and responsibilities of the Human Capital Management and Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”). This Charter has been adopted by the Board.

COMPOSITION

The Committee shall be appointed by the Board and shall be comprised of not fewer than three Directors, each of whom (1) is a “non-employee director” for purposes of Rule 16b-3 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”) and (2) is “independent,” in accordance with the provisions of Rule 10C-1(b)(1) under the Exchange Act and as defined by the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”). The Chairman of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board. Members of the Committee may be removed by the Board at any time. In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Committee may delegate any or all of its responsibilities and authority to a subcommittee of the Committee, including to a subcommittee comprised solely of one member of the Committee. The Committee may also delegate its authority to a committee comprised of one or more directors (whether or not such directors serve on the Committee) as the Committee deems appropriate; provided, however, the Committee may not delegate any power or authority required by law, regulation or listing standard to be exercised by the Committee.

Notwithstanding the foregoing membership requirements and subject to applicable law, no action of the Committee will be invalid by reason of any such requirement not being met at the time such action is taken.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Committee is to provide assistance to the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities for:

- (i) overseeing the Company’s policies and strategies related to human capital management, including diversity, equity, and inclusion;
- (ii) overseeing and administering the Company’s executive compensation policies, plans and practices;
- (iii) compensating the Company’s chief executive officer and other executive officers and advising the Board on the Company’s compensation philosophy, programs and objectives;
- (iv) planning for the succession of senior management; and
- (v) overseeing management’s plans for talent and professional development for key employees.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

The following shall be the principal responsibilities and duties of the Committee.

1. The Committee shall establish a compensation philosophy designed to support the Company’s overall business strategy and objectives. The Committee shall establish a compensation strategy designed to attract and retain executive talent, motivate executive officers to improve their performance and the financial performance of the Company, and otherwise implement the Company’s compensation philosophy. The Committee shall have the authority to determine the forms and amount of compensation appropriate to achieve the strategic objectives of the Company’s compensation philosophy including, salary, bonus, incentive or performance-based compensation, and equity awards. The Committee shall review the Company's compensation philosophy and the Committee's strategies at least annually to determine that each supports the Company's objectives and stockholders' interests.

2. The Committee shall review and establish annual and long-term goals and objectives for the Company's chief executive officer and other executive officers intended to support the Company's annual and long-term objectives. In determining such goals and objectives and the performance-based component of the compensation of the chief executive officer and other executive officers, the Committee may consider (i) the Company's performance and relative stockholder return; (ii) the value of similar incentive awards to such officers at comparable companies; (iii) the awards given to such officers in previous years; and (iv) such officer's overall compensation and such other factors as the Committee may determine appropriate.
3. The Committee shall review incentive compensation arrangements to confirm that incentive pay does not encourage inappropriate risk taking.
4. The Committee shall evaluate annually the performance of the Company's chief executive officer and other executive officers in light of the approved performance goals and objectives. The review will include a continuing evaluation of his/her understanding of the Company business environment, leadership qualities, knowledge, skills, expertise, integrity, and reputation in the business community.
5. The Committee shall review and approve annually the compensation of the chief executive officer and other executive officers based on their performance evaluations and other factors that the committee deems appropriate. The Committee shall make and annually review decisions regarding (i) the chief executive officer's salary and the salary paid to the other executive officers; (ii) the extent to which any performance-based bonus awards were earned; (iii) the bonus opportunities, including long-term incentive opportunities, for the chief executive officer and other executive officers for the next fiscal year and future periods; and (iv) any other matter relating to the compensation of the chief executive officer or other executive officers that the Committee considers appropriate. In evaluating and determining compensation of the chief executive officer and other executive officers, the Committee shall consider the results of the most recent stockholder advisory vote on executive compensation ("Say on Pay Vote") required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act.
6. The Committee shall review at least annually all components of compensation paid to or available to the chief executive officer, other executive officers, and any other employees as determined by the committee, which shall include, without limitation, salary, bonuses (both performance-based and otherwise), long-term incentive compensation, perquisites and other personal benefits, and retirement plans and benefits to determine the appropriateness of each component in light of the Company's compensation philosophy and the Committee's compensation strategies and to ensure that the compensation strategy supports the Company's objectives.
7. The Committee shall assess and review the Company's management and development of succession programs, review and discuss succession plans for the Company's executive officers and other key positions and assist the Board in succession planning for the chief executive officer (including succession planning for emergencies).
8. The Committee shall approve, interpret and administer the Company's Retirement Guidelines.
9. The Committee shall review at least annually all equity-based compensation plans and arrangements, and the number of shares remaining available for issuance under those plans and arrangements, and make recommendations to the Board regarding the need to amend existing plans or adopt new plans for the purposes of implementing the Committee's strategy regarding long-term and equity-based compensation. The Committee shall have all of the authority of the Board to administer the Company's equity compensation plans.

10. The Committee may grant awards under or, when appropriate, recommend awards to the Board for its approval under the Company's equity compensation plans; provided that the authority to issue such awards to officers, employees and consultants who are not subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the terms of such plan and the limitations set forth in the delegation of authority, be delegated to a committee comprised of one or more directors as provided above. The Committee shall have the authority to approve the forms of agreements evidencing such grants and to interpret and amend such agreements within the terms of the plans. In reviewing and making recommendations regarding equity-based incentive compensation plans, the Committee shall consider the results of the most recent Say on Pay Vote required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act.
11. The Committee shall review and approve all employment, severance, change of control or other compensation agreements or arrangements to be entered into or otherwise established between the Company and the chief executive officer or any other executive officer and any proposed amendments or renewals thereof. The Committee shall review any such existing agreements and arrangements with the chief executive officer and other executive officers at least annually and recommend to the Board any amendments thereto that the Committee deems appropriate.
12. The Committee shall review at least annually the components of compensation paid to or available to the non-employee Directors including, without limitation, annual retainer and meeting fees and equity compensation, and making recommendations to the Board for approval of the compensation for non-employee Directors, including any changes therein.
13. The Committee shall approve and administer one or more policies, including amendments to existing policies, for the recovery or clawback of erroneously paid compensation (as amended from time to time, the "Clawback Policy"), and ensure that the Clawback Policy complies with all applicable rules and regulations, including the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the listing standards of the NYSE, and consult with the Audit Committee of the Board, the Company's chief financial officer or chief accounting officer, as applicable, as needed in order to properly administer and carry out the purpose of the Clawback Policy.
14. Human Capital Management duties shall include the following:
 - The Committee shall receive periodic reports from management on human resources programs and practices, including employee advancement and development, workforce planning, recruitment and retention, and work environment/corporate culture;
 - The Committee shall review and monitor executive talent and development programs, including training and retention programs for members of senior management and key employees;
 - The Committee shall review and monitor the Company's practices for supporting diversity, equity, and inclusion in the workplace; and
 - The Committee shall receive periodic reports from management regarding the Company's diversity, equity and inclusion initiatives and results.
15. The Committee shall review and discuss with management the Company's annual Compensation Disclosure and Analysis for inclusion in the Company's annual proxy statement or Form 10-K, in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Based upon such review and discussion of the Compensation Disclosure and Analysis, the Committee shall make a recommendation to the Board as to whether the Compensation Disclosure and Analysis should be included in the Company's annual proxy statement or Form 10-K in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

16. The Committee shall approve the Committee's annual compensation committee report and the disclosure as required by Item 407(e)(5) of Regulation S-K for inclusion in the Company's annual proxy statement or Form 10-K that complies with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the NYSE and any other applicable rules and regulations.
17. The Committee shall evaluate and review the Company's financial performance measures used to link executive compensation actually paid to the Company's chief executive officer and other executive officers for the last completed fiscal year to Company performance.
18. The Committee shall review and recommend to the Board for approval the frequency with which the Company will conduct Say on Pay Votes, taking into account the results of the most recent stockholder advisory vote on frequency of Say on Pay Votes required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act, and review and approve the proposals regarding the Say on Pay Vote and, no less frequently than every six years, the frequency of the Say on Pay Vote to be included in the Company's proxy statement.
19. The Committee shall annually assess the adequacy of this Charter and recommending any proposed changes to the Board.
20. The Committee shall conduct an annual performance self-evaluation of the Committee and present the results of such self-evaluation to the Board.
21. The Committee shall participate, as appropriate, in proactive outreach efforts to communicate with and listen to shareholders and other stakeholders.
22. The Committee shall make regular reports to the Board, as often as the Committee deems appropriate, in executing its responsibilities under this Charter.
23. The Committee may retain and obtain, in the Committee's discretion, the advice and services of compensation consultants, legal counsel and other advisors to advise and assist the Committee in the performance of its functions, but only after taking into consideration all factors relevant to such advisor's independence from management, including those specified by the rules of the NYSE and Rule 10C-1 of the Exchange Act. The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of such advisors. The Committee shall have sole authority to determine the advisors' fees and other compensation and the other terms of retention, and to terminate any such services. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of such fees and other compensation to any consultant, legal counsel or other advisor retained by the Committee pursuant to this Charter.
24. The Committee shall evaluate whether any compensation consultant retained or to be retained by it has any conflict of interest in accordance with Item 407(e)(3)(iv) of Regulation S-K.
25. The Committee shall undertake any other duties assigned to the Committee by the Board from time to time, including any duties set forth in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines.

MEETINGS AND PROCEDURES

The Committee shall meet as often as its members deem necessary to perform the Committee's responsibilities and duties, which shall be not less than three times per year. Except as otherwise provided in this Charter, the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, the Company's certificate of incorporation or bylaws, or applicable law, the Committee shall determine its own rules of procedure.
