

CHARTER OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
OF THE
BOARDS OF DIRECTORS OF TRUIST FINANCIAL CORPORATION AND TRUIST BANK

Purpose

The Executive Committee (the “Committee”) is a joint committee appointed by the Boards of Directors (collectively and/or individually for the respective corporation, as the case may be, the “Board”) of Truist Financial Corporation and Truist Bank (collectively and/or individually herein, as the case may be, the “Corporation”) and has the purpose of providing a means of exercising, during the intervals between meetings of the Board, all the powers and authority of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation, to the extent permitted by applicable law. In this regard, the Committee acts on behalf of the Board in the best interest of the Corporation and its shareholders in all matters for which the Board may act, to the extent permitted by applicable law. All acts done and powers conferred by the Committee shall be deemed to be, and may be certified as being, done and conferred under authority of the Board.

Committee Membership

The Committee members and its Chair shall be appointed annually by the Board on the recommendation of the Nominating and Governance Committee. They may be replaced by the Board and shall include the Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board; provided, that, (i) if the offices of Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board are held by different individuals, then: (A) the Chairman of the Board shall be a member of the Committee; and (B) the Chief Executive Officer shall be a member of the Committee so long as such officer is also a director of the Corporation, and (ii) if the offices of Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board are held by the same individual, then the Lead Director shall be a member of the Committee. The Committee shall have at least three members.

The Committee may delegate to its Chair such power and authority as the Committee deems to be appropriate, except such powers and authorities required by law or regulation to be exercised by the whole Committee or by a subcommittee of at least three members.

Meetings

The Committee shall meet as often as it deems appropriate. The agendas for the meetings shall be set under the direction of the Chair of the Committee, provided that if the positions of Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer are combined and that individual serves as the Committee Chair, the Lead Director will have the opportunity to suggest matters for inclusion on the Committee agendas and must approve the scheduling of meetings and the agendas as well as the information that is sent to Committee members in preparation for and at Committee meetings. The Committee Chair may request that certain officers or employees of the Corporation, other directors, the Corporation’s outside counsel or the Corporation’s independent auditor, as the Committee deems appropriate, be present at meetings of the Committee. The Chair of the Committee shall have the sole authority to call the Committee into executive session, provided that any member of the Committee may request that the Chair call an executive session, subject to the Chair's discretion. The Committee or its Chair shall select a Committee member to serve as interim chair if the Committee Chair cannot be present at a duly convened meeting, provided that if the Lead Director is a member of the Committee and is not the Committee Chair, the Lead Director shall serve as interim chair if the Committee Chair cannot be present.

Committee Duties and Responsibilities

1. To the extent permitted by applicable law, this Committee has and may exercise, during the intervals between the meetings of the Board, all the powers and authority of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation in a manner that the Committee determines to be in the best interests of the Corporation and its shareholders.
2. The Chair of the Committee shall report to the Board on the Committee's activities at the next Board meeting following each meeting of the Committee. The Committee shall maintain minutes of its meetings.
3. The Committee shall annually review and assess the adequacy of its Charter and recommend to the Board any changes to this Charter. The Committee shall on an ongoing basis, but at least annually, review its own performance, assessing its strengths and opportunities and the skills and resources required to meet its obligations under this Charter, and shall recommend to the Board such enhancements as the Committee deems prudent.
4. The Committee shall carry out such other duties as may be delegated to it by the Board from time to time.

Committee Powers and Authority

1. The Committee shall have the authority, to the extent it deems necessary or appropriate, to retain independent risk management, legal, accounting or other advisors and shall have sole authority to approve the advisors' fees and other retention terms, including the authority to limit the amount of fees an advisor may earn from other services provided to the Corporation. The Corporation shall provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, to allow the Committee to perform its functions, including for the fees and expenses of outside advisors to the Committee.
2. The Committee may form, and delegate authority to, subcommittees comprised of three or more members of the Committee, as appropriate and subject to any applicable restrictions or requirements. Each subcommittee shall have the full power and authority of the Committee as to matters delegated to it.
